

Japanese-Canadian Friendship Cemented

GREETINGS from the Hon. S. Teyo, retiring Japanese Consul for Western Canada.

It has been difficult for the people of Canada to face the conditions of declining wheat, lumber, fish and mineral markets that have persisted during the past year and which have resulted in an increase of unemployment; but the Canadian nation has borne the burden with admirable courage and forbearance.

The recent period of depression has been the most strenuous through which the nations of the world have passed in the lifetime of most people living today. I prefer to use the past tense "have passed" because it is father to my thoughts, which are optimistic.

The optimism which I possess, I think, largely due to the buoyant and courageous atmosphere created by the Canadian people and particularly the people of British Columbia with whom I have been closely associated. It is therefore a great pleasure for me to extend through its special industrial number, a few words of greeting to the Canadian people.

The evidence of friendly trade relations, which has been the most trying conditions during the past year, prompts me to prescribe a great pleasure for me to extend through its special industrial number, a few words of greeting to the Canadian people.

The evidence of friendly trade relations, which has been the most trying conditions during the past year, prompts me to prescribe a great pleasure for me to extend through its special industrial number, a few words of greeting to the Canadian people.

The evidence of friendly trade relations, which has been the most trying conditions during the past year, prompts me to prescribe a great pleasure for me to extend through its special industrial number, a few words of greeting to the Canadian people.

The evidence of friendly trade relations, which has been the most trying conditions during the past year, prompts me to prescribe a great pleasure for me to extend through its special industrial number, a few words of greeting to the Canadian people.

The evidence of friendly trade relations, which has been the most trying conditions during the past year, prompts me to prescribe a great pleasure for me to extend through its special industrial number, a few words of greeting to the Canadian people.

The evidence of friendly trade relations, which has been the most trying conditions during the past year, prompts me to prescribe a great pleasure for me to extend through its special industrial number, a few words of greeting to the Canadian people.

The evidence of friendly trade relations, which has been the most trying conditions during the past year, prompts me to prescribe a great pleasure for me to extend through its special industrial number, a few words of greeting to the Canadian people.

The evidence of friendly trade relations, which has been the most trying conditions during the past year, prompts me to prescribe a great pleasure for me to extend through its special industrial number, a few words of greeting to the Canadian people.

The evidence of friendly trade relations, which has been the most trying conditions during the past year, prompts me to prescribe a great pleasure for me to extend through its special industrial number, a few words of greeting to the Canadian people.

The evidence of friendly trade relations, which has been the most trying conditions during the past year, prompts me to prescribe a great pleasure for me to extend through its special industrial number, a few words of greeting to the Canadian people.

The evidence of friendly trade relations, which has been the most trying conditions during the past year, prompts me to prescribe a great pleasure for me to extend through its special industrial number, a few words of greeting to the Canadian people.

The evidence of friendly trade relations, which has been the most trying conditions during the past year, prompts me to prescribe a great pleasure for me to extend through its special industrial number, a few words of greeting to the Canadian people.

The evidence of friendly trade relations, which has been the most trying conditions during the past year, prompts me to prescribe a great pleasure for me to extend through its special industrial number, a few words of greeting to the Canadian people.

The evidence of friendly trade relations, which has been the most trying conditions during the past year, prompts me to prescribe a great pleasure for me to extend through its special industrial number, a few words of greeting to the Canadian people.

The evidence of friendly trade relations, which has been the most trying conditions during the past year, prompts me to prescribe a great pleasure for me to extend through its special industrial number, a few words of greeting to the Canadian people.

The evidence of friendly trade relations, which has been the most trying conditions during the past year, prompts me to prescribe a great pleasure for me to extend through its special industrial number, a few words of greeting to the Canadian people.

The evidence of friendly trade relations, which has been the most trying conditions during the past year, prompts me to prescribe a great pleasure for me to extend through its special industrial number, a few words of greeting to the Canadian people.

The evidence of friendly trade relations, which has been the most trying conditions during the past year, prompts me to prescribe a great pleasure for me to extend through its special industrial number, a few words of greeting to the Canadian people.

The evidence of friendly trade relations, which has been the most trying conditions during the past year, prompts me to prescribe a great pleasure for me to extend through its special industrial number, a few words of greeting to the Canadian people.

The evidence of friendly trade relations, which has been the most trying conditions during the past year, prompts me to prescribe a great pleasure for me to extend through its special industrial number, a few words of greeting to the Canadian people.

The evidence of friendly trade relations, which has been the most trying conditions during the past year, prompts me to prescribe a great pleasure for me to extend through its special industrial number, a few words of greeting to the Canadian people.

The evidence of friendly trade relations, which has been the most trying conditions during the past year, prompts me to prescribe a great pleasure for me to extend through its special industrial number, a few words of greeting to the Canadian people.

The evidence of friendly trade relations, which has been the most trying conditions during the past year, prompts me to prescribe a great pleasure for me to extend through its special industrial number, a few words of greeting to the Canadian people.

The evidence of friendly trade relations, which has been the most trying conditions during the past year, prompts me to prescribe a great pleasure for me to extend through its special industrial number, a few words of greeting to the Canadian people.

The evidence of friendly trade relations, which has been the most trying conditions during the past year, prompts me to prescribe a great pleasure for me to extend through its special industrial number, a few words of greeting to the Canadian people.

The evidence of friendly trade relations, which has been the most trying conditions during the past year, prompts me to prescribe a great pleasure for me to extend through its special industrial number, a few words of greeting to the Canadian people.

SPRINGTIME IN THE LAND OF NIPPON

Blissfully beautiful features the riverways of Japan. Above is a picture from a photograph taken on one of Tokyo's many beautiful rivers.

Seven P's of Japan

In an editorial written by Hikoichi Mōryama, president of the Osaka Mainichi and the Tokyo Nichi Nichi newspapers the "Seven P's" are dealt with in an enlightening and clever manner. Summarized up they are: 1. Purify... in this the Japanese believe must be found the motive of all that is noble and beautiful in human activities. They are not anything that tends to reflect upon their honor or personality; they are the speedy stream that is carried upon men of good standing once they are purified. They are purged of all that is sordid and base, and they are left as a pure stream of activity. They are not anything that tends to reflect upon their honor or personality; they are the speedy stream that is carried upon men of good standing once they are purified. They are purged of all that is sordid and base, and they are left as a pure stream of activity.

LOVELY PRODUCT OF JAPAN

Great strides in the commercial and cultural life of the world have been made by Japan the last fifty years or so. New, modern fashions are found mingling with gowns dressed in the beautiful Japanese costume on the streets of the bigger cities. Whether the flapper or the native Japanese girl has the advantage is a moot point, but judging by the above picture it is doubtful if the former would secure a majority of votes in a popularity contest.

Analysis of Trade, Canada and Japan

Table showing trade statistics between Canada and Japan, including fiscal year ending March 31st and total trade figures.

Principal Exports From Japan to Canada

Table listing principal exports from Japan to Canada, such as silk, cotton, and various manufactured goods.

Principal Imports Into Japan From Canada

Table listing principal imports into Japan from Canada, including wheat, paper, and other commodities.

Advertisement for The Royston Lumber Co. Limited, featuring text about manufacturers of rough and dressed lumber, and contact information for their Vancouver office.

Advertisement for The Showa Trading Company, a manufacturer's agent for Japanese goods in Vancouver, B.C., with contact details for their office and factory.

Advertisement for The Yamato, a Japanese gift shop, featuring text about Japan's Christmas gift to Canada and contact information for their store.

JAPANESE HAVE PRACTICAL SIDE

But Not Necessarily Prosaic Says Writer

The Japanese are practical. Not necessarily prosaic, but they are not carried over their feet over lofty dreamy ideals or philosophic speculations. They are practical. Not necessarily prosaic, but they are not carried over their feet over lofty dreamy ideals or philosophic speculations. They are practical. Not necessarily prosaic, but they are not carried over their feet over lofty dreamy ideals or philosophic speculations.

Advertisement for S. Tamura, General Merchandise Importer and Exporter, featuring the 'Sun Ban' brand and contact information for their Vancouver office.

Advertisement for M. Furuya & Co. Ltd., located at 46 Hastings Street West, featuring text about their business and contact details.

Advertisement for Modiste--Ladies' Wear, featuring text about their clothing line and contact information for their store.

Advertisement for K. Momose, featuring text about their business and contact information for their store.

Advertisement for The Yamato, featuring text about their Japanese gift shop and contact information for their store.

Advertisement for Art Is Jealously Guarded in Japan, featuring text about the preservation of Japanese art and culture.

Advertisement for Aman Domestic Servant of Japan, featuring text about domestic services and contact information.

Advertisement for Japan's Christmas Gift to Canada, featuring text about Japanese oranges and contact information for The Yamato.