

THE VANCOUVER SUN Vancouver's Most Useful Institution Read, that you may receive not only facts, but the significance of those facts. MAY 16, 1931

TO MAKE, NOT BREAK, MEN Col. W. H. Edgett, warden of the B. C. penitentiary, is doing a useful missionary work in appealing for public cooperation in the after-care of discharged prisoners.

Teaching a man a trade and inspiring him to self-respect is not coddling the criminal. It is good, practical work many times its cost.

THE CASE AGAINST EXAMINATIONS A strong case for reform in the system of final high school and university entrance examinations is made in a report by a committee of the B. C. Teachers' Federation.

The committee recommends that approved high schools be "accredited" the privilege of issuing graduation certificates and university entrance diplomas.

GOOD MEDICINE, BUT HARD TO TAKE The most talked-of book in England today was written by a Frenchman. Andre Siegfried, who recently made the Americans squirm with his penetrating analysis of their social and economic service, has performed a similar service for the Mother Country with his "England's Crisis."

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS Question: R. B. asks: "Will you please explain the correct way to read a thermometer?"

GOOD MEDICINE, BUT HARD TO TAKE (Continued) The author marshals an array of statistics to show that Britain has lost her mariners and commercial supremacy. This she attributes to a complacent lethargy.

LEARN FROM YOUR WIVES Vancouver marriages. During April there were 46 more weddings than during March.

GETTING WHAT YOU WANT Nothing can take the place of what you want. And when you ask the fabled story for an article and get a substitute, it's ten to one you'll wonder whether you got the best or the worst of the bargain.

What B.C. Editors Say-- Trail Times: News of British opposition to a Chinese resolution, at the International Chamber of Commerce meeting, will be welcomed by all those connected with the movement.

The True, Elmer Doris C. Anderson, 1044 Elgin Avenue West Vancouver It isn't the one who can smile in the sun Or laugh when his heart is gay, Nor the one who can cheer when luck is near Who helps us on life's way.

Delicious Delicatessen Foods DR. FRANK MCCOY and they may be picked up at a late hour for a surprise.

The delicatessen stores of today have acquired somewhat of a bad reputation largely due to jobs about new.

Not Anti-Asiatic Prejudice That Hurt B. C. Editor, The Vancouver Sun: Sir, Your correspondence signing himself "Facta," says that B. C. salmon is being boycotted in many parts of Great Britain.

East-end Complains Park Money All Spent in West Editor, The Vancouver Sun: Sir, I've noticed several letters in your paper re Trout Lake district.

Spirit of Canada's Lord's Day Act Warmly Defended Editor, The Vancouver Sun: Sir, in your issue of May 15th, Mr. R. A. Johnson, member of the Seventh Day Adventist Conference, returns to his periodic attack upon the Lord's Day Act of Canada.

Vancouver's Early Life TEN YEARS AGO Mr. Westminister—Mrs. Charles Walsh has re-elected for her eighth term as president of the Provincial Educational Club at the annual meeting at Columbia College.

LEARN FROM YOUR WIVES (Continued) Each one of those girls, now a wife, becomes a buying executive for a home of her own. Women know how to buy, and they do 85 per cent of it.

WHAT YOU WANT (Continued) Men can learn from their wives. They can clear out the old ideas and the old methods, just as their wives clear out the shelves, and establish new ones.

WHAT B.C. EDITORS SAY-- (Continued) Trail Times: News of British opposition to a Chinese resolution, at the International Chamber of Commerce meeting, will be welcomed by all those connected with the movement.

OUR WAY By Williams WHAT? YOU SAY GOLF DOES THAT TO YOU? YOU MEAN TO SAY THAT ALL THESE STIFF-LEGGED GOLFERS I'VE BEEN SEEN AROUND HERE LATELY ARE CAUGHT BY GOLF?

STICK TO THE COMPANY WHAT IS YOUR OPINION The Vancouver Sun is glad to publish the views of its readers on any subject that interests them.

Not Anti-Asiatic Prejudice That Hurt B. C. (Continued) Editor, The Vancouver Sun: Sir, Your correspondence signing himself "Facta," says that B. C. salmon is being boycotted in many parts of Great Britain.

East-end Complains Park Money All Spent in West (Continued) Editor, The Vancouver Sun: Sir, I've noticed several letters in your paper re Trout Lake district.

Spirit of Canada's Lord's Day Act Warmly Defended (Continued) Editor, The Vancouver Sun: Sir, in your issue of May 15th, Mr. R. A. Johnson, member of the Seventh Day Adventist Conference, returns to his periodic attack upon the Lord's Day Act of Canada.

Vancouver's Early Life TEN YEARS AGO (Continued) Mr. Westminister—Mrs. Charles Walsh has re-elected for her eighth term as president of the Provincial Educational Club at the annual meeting at Columbia College.

LEARN FROM YOUR WIVES (Continued) Each one of those girls, now a wife, becomes a buying executive for a home of her own. Women know how to buy, and they do 85 per cent of it.

WHAT YOU WANT (Continued) Men can learn from their wives. They can clear out the old ideas and the old methods, just as their wives clear out the shelves, and establish new ones.

WHAT B.C. EDITORS SAY-- (Continued) Trail Times: News of British opposition to a Chinese resolution, at the International Chamber of Commerce meeting, will be welcomed by all those connected with the movement.

Lend Me Your Ears By R. D. BOUCHETTE DIARY OF A RACONTEUR Saturday, May 8.—In the evening after a day of moderate toil, was introduced to a lady of moderate means.

CHILDREN'S CHILDREN'S Child Press Wednesday, May 11.—Heard a suggestion by a serious prose-writer that people should be taught to read the profession of journalism from childhood.

THE CAT AND THE DOG Monday, May 11.—Returning home after my usual walk, I met a man with a dog on his back.

SCHOOL EXAMINATIONS "ANTIQUATED AND MANIFESTLY UNFAIR," HE SAYS Editor, The Vancouver Sun: Sir, I see the city high school authorities are preparing to put the old system through the grating test of term-end examinations.

THE GIGLO Tuesday, May 12.—The story in the York Telegram newspaper of dancing on the roof of the Hotel Astor, New York, is a very interesting one.

WORLD'S PRESS WORLD'S PRESS (Continued) London (Pa.) Advertiser: Mr. Bennett says he did not promise to pay 50 per cent of the cost of old age pensions.

Legal Hints If you wish to be sure of your legal rights you should consult a lawyer. The Vancouver Sun is glad to publish the views of its readers on any subject that interests them.