

HIGH COST OF LOVING UNFAIR

BIRTHDAY PARTY FOR MAY SUN-RAYS NEXT SATURDAY

The Suiitor Pays and Pays, Says Bachelor

I have just noticed that, through a typographical error, the name of the writer of last week's Best Letter was omitted. It came from Harry Ashin, Armstrong, B. C.

Dear Miss Dix—There has been a marked decrease in marriages. We wonder, does the modern woman really want to be married? The following reasons are the opinions of a club of 40 bachelors.

Are all Sun-Rays born in May, ready for the big birthday party to be held at the Broadway Theatre next Saturday? ... The Suiitor Pays and Pays, Says Bachelor Today's courtship is a long and expensive one. Young women are not getting married as fast as they used to. The reasons are many and varied.

SALESMAN SAM

Sam's Not Particular!

By SMALL

BOUND TO WIN

The Joyful Return Trip

By EDWIN ALGER

Tomorrow, Thursday, May 21st, is the birthday of the Sun-Rays. It is a day of joy and celebration. The Sun-Rays are a group of young people who are dedicated to the service of their community.

As my correspondent ably points out, if a young man spends all of his money in giving a girl a good time he has some right to be disappointed if she does not reciprocate.

BOBBY THATCHER

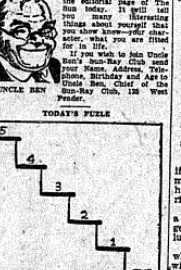

No Parking

By GEORGE STORM

UNCLE BEN

THE MISOBYNISTS

Answer: I have frequently warned girls that they were making the mistake of letting a young man wrecking that left a young man in the lurch. It is a good thing that I have pointed out from time to time that in the old days, when a maiden entertained her best beau at home, there were far more weddings than there are now.

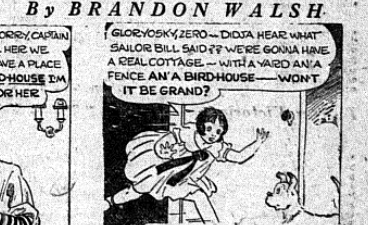

LITTLE ANNIE ROONEY

It's Good News To Her

By BRANDON WALSH

TODAY'S FEELS

TURKISH FARMERS

ISTANBUL, May 20.—The Turkish general election having been completed, it is expected that the government will formulate plans and legislation favorable to the cooperative societies among farmers.

JANE ARDEN

By MONTE BARRETT and FRANK ELLIS

HERE'S TODAY'S PRIZE RECIPE

A prize of $1 will be awarded each day for the best recipe sent in by the Vancouver Sun readers. Address letters to the Recipe Editor, The Vancouver Sun, 1111 West Broadway, Vancouver, B.C.

LIVER SAVORY

1 egg to molder Salt and pepper 1/2 cup flour 1/2 cup milk 1/2 cup butter 1/2 cup onion 1/2 cup celery 1/2 cup carrot 1/2 cup potato 1/2 cup corn 1/2 cup peas 1/2 cup beans 1/2 cup lentils 1/2 cup chickpeas 1/2 cup chickpeas 1/2 cup chickpeas

LAURA LOU BROOKMAN

CHAPTER XII 'GYPSEY BEGAN HER TODAY... LAURA LOU BROOKMAN Author of 'HEART HUNGRY' etc.

THE OLD GARDENER

Says: By M. S. REYNOLDS, F.R.S. Mr. S. P. Moody writes to ask how to call caterpillars on the leaves of trees.

Japanese Prince

Here on May 21 H.R.H. Prince Takahiko Shimamura of Japan, uncle of the Emperor of Japan will arrive in Vancouver May 21 to embark on the C.P. S.S. Empress of Canada for Japan.

YOUR BABY AND MINE

DIET, FRESH AIR, SUNSHINE, REST--ALL IMPORTANT Failure to Gain Means Some Health Eats is Violated The baby under one year makes gains that are in relation to his birth weight.

WILLIE WILLIS

By Robert Quillen 'Mamma thought her comb was lost, an me an Pug had it all the time--' Willie Willis

Upholds Sentence of Cranbrook Man

Sentence of Nault Neemen, by Judge O. H. Thompson at Cranbrook, B.C., in the case of a man charged with unlawfully obtaining mail tickets from the city of Cranbrook has been upheld by Mr. Justice Murphy in habeas corpus proceedings attacking the conviction.

COMMITTED ON UTTERING CHARGE

Charged with uttering a cheque which his employer's name had been forged as endorsement, William Marston, 1111 West Broadway, Vancouver, was committed to the Vancouver House of Correction on a charge of uttering a forged cheque.

Uncle Wiggly's Telephone

By (Howard R. Garcia) Mr. Twislaty, the fat pig gentleman, came out of a toy store one day looking so hard that he shook all over as if he were a bowl of jelly with whipped cream on top.