It Will Probably Be Hotter Sunday

Another sunny week-end is promised by the Weather Man for Vancouver and district.

With the barometer remaining high on the Coast, the forecast is for continued fine, warm weather, with westerly winds.

Friday the mercury reached 82 degrees in the official thermometer here. This was four degrees lower than Kamloops, the warmest spot in the province and 18 degrees lower than Swift Current, that held the high temperature record for the day in Western Canada and the Pacific Coast.

HUDSON GIVES HIMSELF UP

'What-a-Man' Visited by 'Ma' Kennedy in Jail

LOS ANGELES, July 25.—Chastened by the buffeting fate has given him since his midnight marriage three weeks ago to Mrs. Minnie "Ma" Kennedy, G. Edward "What-a-Man" Hudson surrendered yesterday on a bigamy charge and languished in jail while arrangements were made for bail.

"Ma" Kennedy injected a note of cheer into the darkest hour of "What-a-Man." When he was led into court for arraignment after being fingerprinted and photographed for the county jail records, there was Mrs. Kennedy.

She threw him a kiss and "What-a-Man" tossed one back with a smile to boot.

"I just came to see my man. He's in trouble. The least I can do is to be near his side in this hour," explained his erstwhile wife, who yesterday said after the wedding was annulled in superior court that they would not remarry.

On the jail records "What-a-Man's" worldly possession were listed as $1.72 in cash, a pencil, razor blades, a toothpick, a dollar watch, a nail file, a package of cigarettes and a copy of the New Testament.

"Mrs. Kennedy didn't put up one cent of the bail money, nor is she in any way obligated to pay Hudson's attorney fee," his lawyer took occasion to announce.

"What-a-Man" was particular about how he was recorded at the jail. He gave his name as G. Edward Hudson.

"Be sure and make it G," he said. "I hate the name Guy. My nickname is 'Jack'."

MacDonald was camping with Dan Morrison, 1858 West First; Jim Simpson, 1933 West Second, and Leslie Dunning, 1465 Cypress Street, and had gone in bathing alone. He was said to be only a fair swimmer. He had been camping on the Island a week.

R. F. H. Reid, of North Vancouver Sea Scouts, son of Commander Reid, harbor master, who witnessed the accident notified the provincial police. Captain Tom White rushed the police to the scene of the accident in the "Sonnie" leaving Snug Cove at 5 p.m. and arriving at Tunstall Bay at 7 p.m.

The body was sent to Horseshoe Bay and conveyed to Vancouver by T. Edwards Company.

He is survived by his parents and a brother, Archie. He was born in Glasgow and came to Vancouver with his parents 10 years ago.
