Hope to Strike Tax Rate Monday

In an effort to have estimates cleaned up and the tax rate struck on the same day, Mayor Andrew McGavin has called a meeting of City Council in estimates for Monday.

A meeting of the council in estimates committee had been arranged this week but was cancelled owing to the illness of D. A. Macdonald, city comptroller-treasurer, from whom certain reports were asked. They include opinions on tax prepayment rates and the proposal to retire the bank loan.

In addition the council at its last session approved a request from the Civic Employees Federation asking for a meeting with the council in estimates on adjustment of the cost-of-living bonus.

Government Against Japs Buying Property

Attorney-General Maitland said today he is receiving many requests to allow Japanese in the interior to acquire new property. "The policy of the government is unchanged," Mr. Maitland said. "We do not think that Japanese should be given title to property in this province at this time."

The Dominion government, by order-in-council, said Japanese could purchase new property if the B.C. Attorney-General gave his consent.

Some people, who sold property to Japanese and cannot get their money, because they cannot transfer title, are protesting.
