

ARTHUR FARNSWORTH

Bette Davis' Husband Dies

HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 25.—(AP)—Arthur Farnsworth, husband of screen actress Bette Davis, died Wednesday of mysterious injuries received Monday when he was found unconscious on a sidewalk.

Dr. Paul Moore, who with Bette Davis was at the bedside when death came, said Farnsworth suffered a basal fracture of the skull, presumably in a fall while walking.

Farnsworth never regained consciousness sufficiently to tell what happened, the physician said.

Farnsworth, a commercial flier, recently came here for a visit with his wife from Minneapolis, Minn., where he was connected with an airplane company.

He was 36 years old. Miss Davis is 34.

Miss Davis was placed under a physician's care, suffering near hysteria.

Sailor's Daughter Wins Right to Wed

Mr. Justice Sidney Smith, Supreme Court Chambers, Wednesday granted judicial approval to the marriage of an air force man and a minor.

He granted his consent after he had been informed that the only obstacle to the marriage of Irene Norford Crosby, 18, and George Mihalcea, airplane mechanic, was the fact that the brides' father, Petty Officer Edward William Crosby, was at sea, aboard a Canadian warship, and could not be contacted for written consent.

The brides' mother, Mrs. Violet M. M. Crosby, 20 West Eleventh, gave her written consent.

Driver Fined for Dangerous Driving

Arthur Bridges, 1093 Seventeenth Street, West Vancouver, was fined $50 and costs or 15 days in jail by Magistrate MacKenzie Matheson, Wednesday, on a charge of dangerous driving, the result of an accident at Granville and Matthews on August 3, when Mrs. Jessie Kinnaird, 1495 Balfour, was struck by an auto and injured.

Canadian commander, the end of the march across the island was another Jap hut, so dark that he had trouble finding a place where he could see to shave.

"Nobody," he said, "can ever say truthfully that he regrets there was no battle. Myself, I think we're extremely lucky to get anything as valuable as Kiska without having to fight for it."

There just won't be many souvenirs of Kiska. The retreating Japanese garrison took with it or burned practically all personal possessions.

Only a few Canadians were able to find anything to show to the folks back home. A sailor asked his neck to take a Jap ring off the topmast of a sunken Japanese ship.

The Canadians finished their training on Adak Island, Alaska, it is now disclosed, after first training on Vancouver Island.

Jap Property Suits Delayed

Failure of Hon. Norman McLarty, Secretary of State, to reply to petitions of J. Arthur McLennan, Vancouver barrister, for leave to take action against the Crown to prevent the sale of Japanese-owned property, has halted, temporarily at least, the efforts of former Japanese residents to retain ownership of their property here.

Mr. McLennan told The Vancouver Sun he was writing today to the Secretary of State to ask for a decision on his petitions.

Parents to Punish Boy Grocery Thief

An 11-year-old boy who helped himself to $1.50 worth of groceries in a Davie Street store on Wednesday will be dealt with by his parents. A police report telling of the arrest of the boy with a 13-year-old companion, stated that the lads were turned over to their parents who "promised to chastise them accordingly."
