WAR CAN HAVE ITS NICE SIDE

American filers in India escape the heat of the plains and relax from the stern duties of war in the beautiful mountain valley of Kashmir. This picture shows Lt. Vaden Carney of Fort Worth, Texas, and Pamela Rumhold, former London model, in their shikara on the way to Shallmar Gardens to have Sunday afternoon tea. This is the most accepted form of transportation in the Srinagar district of Kashmir. Pamela is called the most beautiful girl in Kashmir.

Police Return Seized Goods To Japanese

Large quantities of sugar, rice, canned milk and other goods in short supply, seized last May by Provincial Police and Prices Board investigators in a raid on the Japanese settlement at Lillooet, have been returned to the owners, Board officials told The Vancouver Sun today.

The goods were handed back to the Japanese after Prices Board investigators established that the owners had every legal right to them and that the case "was not a proper one for prosecution," the Board spokesman said.

The raid was conducted with dramatic suddenness on the night of May 28, when police and the Prices Board investigators swooped on the Japanese settlement.

So large was the quantity of goods seized that trucks were loaded to capacity in order to remove the foodstuffs.

The goods were taken to Lillooet by the Japanese when they left the coast area," C. W. Brader, enforcement counsel for the Prices Board explained.

"When the Japanese were being moved the Security Commission was not sure where supplies of the food were coming from and they urged the Japanese to take all the goods they could with them.

"We feel that under these circumstances, it wasn't a proper case for prosecution."
