

CASE OPENS AT OTTAWA MAY 29

High Court to Try Validity Of Jap Coast Property Sales

Legal procedure which could invalidate the sale of hundreds of thousands of dollars of Japanese property in British Columbia will be initiated in the Exchequer Court in Ottawa May 29...

Mr. MacLennan has been trying for almost a year to have this case heard.

Mr. MacLennan said that the Exchequer Court hearing will determine whether or not the court has authority to deal with a Dominion order-in-council...

THREE PARCELS INVOLVED. Only three parcels of property are involved, belonging to a Japanese national, a naturalized Japanese and a Canadian-born Japanese each.

Prices Board Opens Whitehorse Office. Wartime Prices and Trade Board will open an office at Whitehorse, Yukon Territory...

Airwoman Hurt In Truck Crash. Boundary Bay, driver of an Air Force delivery truck, received minor injuries Tuesday when the truck slid while driving on a road with an auto at Larch and Broadway.

Burma Fighting

DRIVE TO OPEN ROUTE TO CHINA

(By Associated Press.) KANDU, Ceylon, May 10.—Allied forces are operating on three sides of Mogauing in northern Burma...

A communiqué said heavy casualties had been inflicted on the Japanese south of Mogauing...

CHINESE CHECK JAPS. Fitting into the picture were Chinese forces in the Mogauing Valley and native Burmese fighting against Japanese attacks...

In northeastern India, meanwhile, fighting continued yesterday in the Kohima area, where the enemy still is present in strength...

Three Coming Here 'DOUKS' MARCH WITH PETITION

(Special to The Daily Province.) BRILLIANT, May 10.—A band of 50 "Sons of Freedom" Doukhobors were on the march again today, this time touring the many small villages in this area seeking signatures on a petition asking release of their "brethren" jailed on the Coast.

ON WAY TO CITY. Meanwhile, there are indications the "Sons of Freedom" have not given up their efforts in Vancouver. At least three of the sect boarded a train at Shoreacres, bound for Vancouver.

DISCLAIMS FANATICS. In Nelson Tuesday, John J. Verigin, secretary of the large and peaceful Union of Spiritual Communities of Christ, disclaimed any connection with the troublesome fanaticism.

At Nelson, police refused Mrs. Gaston Pozdnikoff, brilliant, permission to visit her husband in jail because she had no registration card.

THE B.C. Honey Producers Association will hold a bee-keeping demonstration and field day on Saturday at 2 p.m. in the spray of William C. Feedham, Wild Duck Inn, Dewdney trunk road.

WILMA GENE SMITH HEADS U.B.C. AWARDS

HONOR STUDENT NO BOOK WORM Gold Medalist Noted For Extra-Curricular Activities

No traditional idea of a bookworm is Wilma Gene Smith, 23, gold medalist of the graduating class at the University of B.C. who has also won membership in two honorary clubs for her participation in extra-curricular activities.

Miss Smith, who plans to leave in June for the University of Economics Society, president of the Women's Public Speaking Club, and a member of the Letters Club (English).

WENT TO ENGLAND. Winner of a coronation scholarship, she went to England in 1937. Two brothers—Harry and Gordon, are chemical graduates of U.B.C., and a third, Donald, a mining engineer did two years ago.

UNEMPLOYMENT STUDY. "I'd like to work on the unemployment problem, and how it is affected by the tax system, banking tariffs and monopolies."

position as laboratory assistant. Frederick F. Robertson, winner of the Dr. F. Nicholson scholarship for chemistry, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Robertson, 3025 Scott. Robertson plans post-graduate work in organic chemistry.

Standard Oil Company of B.C. scholarship was won by J. L. Tiedje, a graduate in chemical engineering. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Tiedje, Trail. He will continue studies for his master's degree.

WON SEVERAL PRIZES. Marjorie C. L. Smith, daughter of Mrs. Duncan Smith of 1695 First, won the N. Leo Klein award for general proficiency in commerce in third year. She has won other scholarships in high school and at U.B.C.

Ann E. Scoones, winner of the general proficiency award in nursing, is the daughter of A. E. Scoones of Gallano. Another nursing winner is Allison Mann, daughter of Henry Mann of Calgary.

Robert Olson, engineering winner, is the son of Eric Olson, Hope.

3 Qualities to look for in a wristwatch... Accuracy is what you need most in a wristwatch... Beauty is what you prize most... Value is what every Gruen Veri-Thin gives you...

Only $29.95 Today Gruen continues to make fine watches for civilian use... Discharged from the Air Force, Tom Willis came back to U.B.C. to continue his studies in agriculture. He is winner of the David Thom scholarship for proficiency in second year.

Powell River Company scholarship was won by Ernest N. O'Neill, son of W. W. C. O'Neill, Prince Rupert. Mary Hicks, winner of the Women's Canadian Club scholarship in nursing and health, is the daughter of W. H. Hicks, Agassiz, near AT University.

Winner of the University graduate scholarship is Donald G. Ivey, graduate in arts. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ivey, 4608 West Tenth. Ivey, who hopes to attain a professorship in mathematics, will continue in U. B. C., where he is offered a

WILMA GENE SMITH HEADS U.B.C. AWARDS

HONOR STUDENT NO BOOK WORM Gold Medalist Noted For Extra-Curricular Activities

In June for the University of Economics Society, president of the Women's Public Speaking Club, and a member of the Letters Club (English).

WENT TO ENGLAND. Winner of a coronation scholarship, she went to England in 1937. Two brothers—Harry and Gordon, are chemical graduates of U.B.C., and a third, Donald, a mining engineer did two years ago.

UNEMPLOYMENT STUDY. "I'd like to work on the unemployment problem, and how it is affected by the tax system, banking tariffs and monopolies."

position as laboratory assistant. Frederick F. Robertson, winner of the Dr. F. Nicholson scholarship for chemistry, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Robertson, 3025 Scott. Robertson plans post-graduate work in organic chemistry.

Standard Oil Company of B.C. scholarship was won by J. L. Tiedje, a graduate in chemical engineering. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Tiedje, Trail. He will continue studies for his master's degree.

WON SEVERAL PRIZES. Marjorie C. L. Smith, daughter of Mrs. Duncan Smith of 1695 First, won the N. Leo Klein award for general proficiency in commerce in third year. She has won other scholarships in high school and at U.B.C.

Ann E. Scoones, winner of the general proficiency award in nursing, is the daughter of A. E. Scoones of Gallano. Another nursing winner is Allison Mann, daughter of Henry Mann of Calgary.

Robert Olson, engineering winner, is the son of Eric Olson, Hope.

3 Qualities to look for in a wristwatch... Accuracy is what you need most in a wristwatch... Beauty is what you prize most... Value is what every Gruen Veri-Thin gives you...

Only $29.95 Today Gruen continues to make fine watches for civilian use... Discharged from the Air Force, Tom Willis came back to U.B.C. to continue his studies in agriculture. He is winner of the David Thom scholarship for proficiency in second year.

Powell River Company scholarship was won by Ernest N. O'Neill, son of W. W. C. O'Neill, Prince Rupert. Mary Hicks, winner of the Women's Canadian Club scholarship in nursing and health, is the daughter of W. H. Hicks, Agassiz, near AT University.

Winner of the University graduate scholarship is Donald G. Ivey, graduate in arts. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ivey, 4608 West Tenth. Ivey, who hopes to attain a professorship in mathematics, will continue in U. B. C., where he is offered a

Education Topic For McGill Principal

Dr. Frank Cyril James, principal of McGill University, will speak on "Education for Tomorrow" at a meeting of the Canadian Club in the banquet room of Hotel Vancouver at 12:15 o'clock noon on Thursday.

Silk Specialists. with Barclay's Bank for a trust. He later was with the Wharton School of Finance, University of Pennsylvania. After serving as vice-president of the First National Bank of Chicago, he went to McGill in 1930 as principal and vice-chancellor.

Shakespeare wrote most of his plays exclusively for the Elizabethan and Globe theatres in London.

position as laboratory assistant. Frederick F. Robertson, winner of the Dr. F. Nicholson scholarship for chemistry, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Robertson, 3025 Scott. Robertson plans post-graduate work in organic chemistry.

Standard Oil Company of B.C. scholarship was won by J. L. Tiedje, a graduate in chemical engineering. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Tiedje, Trail. He will continue studies for his master's degree.

WON SEVERAL PRIZES. Marjorie C. L. Smith, daughter of Mrs. Duncan Smith of 1695 First, won the N. Leo Klein award for general proficiency in commerce in third year. She has won other scholarships in high school and at U.B.C.

Ann E. Scoones, winner of the general proficiency award in nursing, is the daughter of A. E. Scoones of Gallano. Another nursing winner is Allison Mann, daughter of Henry Mann of Calgary.

Robert Olson, engineering winner, is the son of Eric Olson, Hope.

3 Qualities to look for in a wristwatch... Accuracy is what you need most in a wristwatch... Beauty is what you prize most... Value is what every Gruen Veri-Thin gives you...

Only $29.95 Today Gruen continues to make fine watches for civilian use... Discharged from the Air Force, Tom Willis came back to U.B.C. to continue his studies in agriculture. He is winner of the David Thom scholarship for proficiency in second year.

Powell River Company scholarship was won by Ernest N. O'Neill, son of W. W. C. O'Neill, Prince Rupert. Mary Hicks, winner of the Women's Canadian Club scholarship in nursing and health, is the daughter of W. H. Hicks, Agassiz, near AT University.

Winner of the University graduate scholarship is Donald G. Ivey, graduate in arts. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ivey, 4608 West Tenth. Ivey, who hopes to attain a professorship in mathematics, will continue in U. B. C., where he is offered a

Education Topic For McGill Principal

Dr. Frank Cyril James, principal of McGill University, will speak on "Education for Tomorrow" at a meeting of the Canadian Club in the banquet room of Hotel Vancouver at 12:15 o'clock noon on Thursday.

Silk Specialists. with Barclay's Bank for a trust. He later was with the Wharton School of Finance, University of Pennsylvania. After serving as vice-president of the First National Bank of Chicago, he went to McGill in 1930 as principal and vice-chancellor.

Shakespeare wrote most of his plays exclusively for the Elizabethan and Globe theatres in London.

position as laboratory assistant. Frederick F. Robertson, winner of the Dr. F. Nicholson scholarship for chemistry, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Robertson, 3025 Scott. Robertson plans post-graduate work in organic chemistry.

Standard Oil Company of B.C. scholarship was won by J. L. Tiedje, a graduate in chemical engineering. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Tiedje, Trail. He will continue studies for his master's degree.

WON SEVERAL PRIZES. Marjorie C. L. Smith, daughter of Mrs. Duncan Smith of 1695 First, won the N. Leo Klein award for general proficiency in commerce in third year. She has won other scholarships in high school and at U.B.C.

Ann E. Scoones, winner of the general proficiency award in nursing, is the daughter of A. E. Scoones of Gallano. Another nursing winner is Allison Mann, daughter of Henry Mann of Calgary.

Robert Olson, engineering winner, is the son of Eric Olson, Hope.

3 Qualities to look for in a wristwatch... Accuracy is what you need most in a wristwatch... Beauty is what you prize most... Value is what every Gruen Veri-Thin gives you...

Only $29.95 Today Gruen continues to make fine watches for civilian use... Discharged from the Air Force, Tom Willis came back to U.B.C. to continue his studies in agriculture. He is winner of the David Thom scholarship for proficiency in second year.

Powell River Company scholarship was won by Ernest N. O'Neill, son of W. W. C. O'Neill, Prince Rupert. Mary Hicks, winner of the Women's Canadian Club scholarship in nursing and health, is the daughter of W. H. Hicks, Agassiz, near AT University.

Winner of the University graduate scholarship is Donald G. Ivey, graduate in arts. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ivey, 4608 West Tenth. Ivey, who hopes to attain a professorship in mathematics, will continue in U. B. C., where he is offered a

THE BIGGEST, SMARTEST COLLECTION OF white Anklets! Rhumbas! Pumps! D'orsay Pumps, too lovely for words. In open or closed backs... Buy your Whites NOW! 6.95

THE GIFT OF GIFTS GRUEN THE PRECISION WATCH. Just arrived! The B.C. Honey Producers Association will hold a bee-keeping demonstration and field day on Saturday at 2 p.m. in the spray of William C. Feedham, Wild Duck Inn, Dewdney trunk road.

3 Qualities to look for in a wristwatch... Accuracy is what you need most in a wristwatch... Beauty is what you prize most... Value is what every Gruen Veri-Thin gives you... Gruen Veri-Thin THE PRECISION WATCH. See your local GRUEN DEALER he has them

Perrin's English Doeskins. Mother's Day is right at hand, and what could be a better gift for HER than velvet-texture doeskins. Perrin's Washable Pigtex. If Mother already has a pair of doeskins... 3 Qualities to look for in a wristwatch... Accuracy is what you need most in a wristwatch... Beauty is what you prize most... Value is what every Gruen Veri-Thin gives you...