Dear Sir:

We are holding in our Safety Deposit Box two $5.00 War Savings Certificates which we received from R. B. McLean Lumber Co. Ltd. who were holding them for you.

Our records, however, show that two claims have been filed against you. National Utilities Corp. Ltd. filed a claim for $2.31 against you and the Union Fish Co. Ltd. filed a claim for $64.53 against you. We would appreciate your advising us if any settlement has been made on either of these claims.

If these claims are still outstanding, we suggest you authorize us to redeem the War Savings Certificates we hold and apply the proceeds to the above claims on a pro rata basis.

May we hear from you at your earliest convenience as to your suggestions for settling these claims.

Yours truly,
