Mr. Tomiso HASHIMOTO,
Registration No. 09787,
Tashme, B.C.

Dear Sir:

Your account with the Custodian shows a Credit Balance of $56.94. These funds represent the net proceeds from the sale of an outboard engine which was turned over to the Custodian by Naval Service.

On February 4th, 1943 we forwarded to you our cheque for $7.66. This money had been received from the Provincial Government as refund of one percent Wage Deduction for 1941.

In your declaration to the Custodian, you declared a Victory Bond in the name of your son, Akira and a Bank account in the Royal Bank of Canada, Main and Hastings Streets, Vancouver. These did not come under the control of the Custodian.

It would appear that we have accounted for all the property of every kind left by you in the protected area which vested in the Custodian and in order that you may confirm this, we enclose a stamped, addressed envelope for your convenience in replying.

Yours truly,

F. Matheson

PERSONAL PROPERTY SUMMARY

File No. 564

January 22, 1946.

Tomizo HASHIMOTO #09787

This man, who was evacuated on March 23, 1942, signed a declaration to the Custodian on March 21, 1942.

In his declaration to the Custodian, he stated that he owned bedroom furniture, one table and 6 chairs, sewing machine (pedal), kitchen utensils and box of boiler tools. All at the Community Hall, Port Alice, B. C. There is nothing further on the file in regard to these articles. As the wife of Tomizo HASHIMOTO, Shizue HASHIMOTO File 2548, did not leave the protected area until September 8, 1942, it is more than likely that the family chattels were disposed of by her. See letter 2/3/46. J.M.

This man declared a Victory Bond (in the name of his infant son Akira) in the Royal Bank of Canada, Vancouver. This did not come under the control of this office.

He also declared a bank account of $500.00 in the Royal Bank of Canada, Main & Hastings Sts., Vancouver. This did not come under the control of this office.

In addition to the items declared, this file shows that on February 4, 1943, we forwarded to Tomizo HASHIMOTO our cheque for $7.66 to cover the sum credited to his account as refund of one per cent wage deductions for 1941, received from the Provincial Government.

The sum of $56.94 was credited to this account as net proceeds from the sale of an Elto Outboard engine sold by the Custodian for $62.00, less expenses of $5.06. The engine had been turned over to the Custodian by Naval Service.

This file reveals no other assets of any kind. The file of Shizue HASHIMOTO, wife of Tomizo, reveals no assets of any kind.

This summary is certified to be in accordance with information on file.

Dear Miss Matheson:

With regard to your letter of March 15th and our telephone conversation yesterday, we are the owners of the Port Alice Community Hall in which Japanese effects were stored at Port Alice.

These were taken over by the Provincial Police, and the Japanese floating equipment was controlled and handled by representatives of the Navy.

None of this material has been left at Port Alice in our care.

Dear Sirs:

On February 6th we wrote your Port Alice office asking for the name of the present owner of the community hall at Port Alice which had formerly been used for storage of personal effects of the evacuated Japanese. We also asked for the name of the person taking care of this hall in 1942.

On February 11th we received a reply from the plant manager at Port Alice stating that this matter had been turned over to the Head Office of your company in Vancouver. Since then we have heard nothing further. Would you kindly give us the information we require.

Yours truly,

F. Matheson,
