GENERAL SUMMARY

File 696

October 14, 1947.

Re: Yamutaki KANASHIRO, Reg. No. 10273

Prior to his evacuation, KANASHIRO was employed as a shingle cutter by Robert McNair Shingle Company, Stillwater. He occupied a shack located on land belonging to the Shingle Company. No action was taken by this office in regard to the shack, and on May 13, 1943, a letter was received from Robert McNair Shingle Company stating that the Japanese houses had been broken down by weight of snow.

CHATELS

KANASHIRO reported tools, kitchen utensils and groceries left in his shack. The letter received May 13, 1943, from Robert McNair Shingle Company states that as a result of the houses breaking down, materials in the houses were getting spoiled and the tools and kitchen utensils would be a total loss. Further letters from the Company on File A/76 advise that a large quantity of foodstuffs were being destroyed by rats, and as only a few of the Japanese were not indebted to M. EBISUZAKI, the groceries would be considered the property of M. EBISUZAKI Company.

As KANASHIRO's shack was very inaccessible, as far as we know, no goods were removed. However, as few or no Stillwater chattels have been accounted for, due to the very sudden evacuation, nothing further can be done in regard to KANASHIRO's goods unless he should claim for loss.

MONIES OWING

KANASHIRO reported the sum of $56.00 owing him by Noboru TOMOGUCHI, File #2034. In letter of November 3, 1942, TOMOGUCHI denied owing this amount, but later on November 30, 1942, he stated he would settle direct with KANASHIRO. KANASHIRO was asked for confirmation of this arrangement but no reply was received and no further action was taken.

LIABILITIES

KANASHIRO reported the sum of $130.32 owing to M. EBISUZAKI Co. for merchandise supplied. He stated in letter of October 15, 1942, that he had left tools and foods in our charge valued at $386.85 and asked that we pay M. EBISUZAKI from that amount and remit the balance to him. He was advised on October 21, 1942, that we were unable to pay M. EBISUZAKI because we had no funds standing to his credit. On July 12, 1946, a statement was received from P. S. Moss & Sons in regard to M. EBISUZAKI Co. and Taira Shingle Belt Camp, Stillwater. This statement shows that KANASHIRO owed the Company $90.89 for board. There are no funds standing to KANASHIRO's credit with this office and no assets belonging to him under the control of the Custodian, with which to settle this claim.
