Dear Mr. McPherson,-

Mr. Jephcott of P.S. Ross & Sons of Toronto, has just sent in a letter received from the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, Toronto Division, enclosing three questionnaires of Japanese who have been interned in Ontario.

The Questionnaires attached to the letter, which I am enclosing herewith, would appear to show they are from British Columbia, possibly evacuated to the Farm Service Camp at Centraillia, Ontario, from where they were interned.

No doubt, you will want to follow up the investigation from that end, and I have advised Mr. Jephcott that he need not take any further steps at least for the time being.

Yours very truly,
