Dear Mr. Gibson:

An endowment policy, on which premium payments were discontinued some time ago, provides for a payment to George Sakurai. We, therefore, desire to locate him.

George Sakurai was born in British Columbia and is now about 26 years of age. He lived with his father, Aisuki in Capilano in 1926. His father operated a dry goods store located at 147 Lonsdale Avenue, Vancouver during that period. In 1928 this family resided in West Vancouver at Keith Road and Third Street. The last known address we have for this family was 139 Lonsdale Avenue, North Vancouver in 1942.

We understand that this family was interned during World War II and your Department took care of all correspondence of interned aliens during World War II.

Can you tell us the present address of George or Aisuki Sakurai? If not, can you furnish us with their last mailing address? The names and addresses of any members of this family would also be of assistance.

Your cooperation will be appreciated. An addressed envelope is enclosed.

Sincerely yours,

Frank J. Landgraf
