Please note that the above has been repatriated to Japan. At the time of repatriation, the following transactions took place:

Draft Issued - - - - -	$ 400.00

It will be seen that this Japanese is indebted to the Department on account of repatriation in the amount of $ 400.00. Therefore should you receive further funds on this account such funds should be turned into this office. It will be applied first to recoup the expenditure made and, second, if there is any surplus such surplus will be remitted to Japan for the account of the Japanese in question.

Yours truly,

Dear Sir:

Re: Frank T. SOKUGAWA

Replying to your letter of the 2nd instant, the photostatic copy sent to us in your letter was signed by Totaro SOKUGAWA, who returned to Japan on the 31st of May, 1946. He is not the same person as the above Japanese.

Frank T. SOKUGAWA, prior to evacuation, lived on Cordova Street, whereas the man you are looking for, Totaro SOKUGAWA, lived at 215 Princess Avenue, Vancouver.

The latter returned to Japan indebted to the Dominion Government of Canada, and there are no assets belonging to him now under the control of the Custodian.

Yours very truly,

C. H. Need,
Office of the Custodian.
