Dear Sir:

With regard to your letter of March 14th, 1944, your file No. 910, Legal Section, I wish to draw your attention to the fact that my son, Susumu Tsuruda has no account with the Custodian.

In my last letter I advised the release of $25.00 to cover payments for books required by him in the pursuit of his studies out of my account with the Custodian.

Will you please rectify this matter at your earliest convenience and notify me of the adjustment.

Yours very truly,

S. Tsuruda

Dear Sirs:

I have had permission from my father, H. Shuzo Tsunoda, to draw $200.00 (two hundred dollars) from the account of which you have custody. Since being released from internment camp previously I find it necessary for the continuance of my studies and for travelling expenses. I would very much like to get settled down somewhere near a city, and then to call my family out, and I think that this money will help very much of taking that first step.

I will be much obliged if this could be granted at your earliest convenience.

Yours Truly
Robert S. Tsunoda
