JAPANESE PROPERTY CLAIMS COMMISSION

Kumabe, B. Co.,

December 10th, 1947.

IN THE MATTER OF THE CLAIM OF FUMIYUO KUYAMA.

922

PROCEEDINGS AT HEARING.

2
F. Kayama,
In Chief.

MR. MCMASTER: My lord, I would like to take next
No. 12 on the list, Fumajiro Kayama. I am afraid we will need the services of the Interpreter in this case, my lord. May I have the claim form, Mr. Secretary?

FUMAJIRO KAYAMA, the Claimant herein, being first duly sworn,
testified through the interpreter as follows:

10 DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. MCMASTER:

Q Mr. Kayama, you are the claimant in this case?

A Yes.

Q Can you identify that signature? That is your signature, is it?

A Yes.

Q And you made this declaration, that the contents of this claim were true to the best of your knowledge, information and belief?

A Yes.

20 Q Mr. Kayama, at the time of the evacuation from the Coast, you owned a boat?

A Yes.

Q What was the name of that boat?

A "F.L."

Q And what type of boat was it?

A A troller.

Q I am instructed -- I think this appears in the Custodian's file -- that the size was 32 feet length -- 32 feet, 6 inches in length,
30 7 feet in breadth, and 3 feet, 6 inches in

P. Kayman,
In Chief.

Q And from whom did you purchase it?

A From the Association. The Association bought it.

Q And was it new or old?

A New.

Q Now, at the time that you had the new engine put in, did you have any work done on the hull of the boat?

A Yes.

10 Q What work? A: New planks on the port side. The port side of the boat had new planks and the cabin was fixed up.

Q To what extent was the cabin fixed up?

A He said practically a new cabin entirely.

Q Well, while he owned this boat, did he have it scraped and painted?

A Yes.

Q How often? A: Twice a year.

Q And in what condition was the boat at the time

20 he evacuated? A: It was in good condition.

Q Now, at the time he evacuated, did he have any equipment on the boat? A: Yes.

Q After having interviewed his counsel a few days ago, did he prepare, at the request of his counsel, a list of that equipment approximately when he purchased it and how much he purchased it for, the sale value he placed on those various articles?

30 A Can I take it in sections?

P. Rayson,
in Chief.

MR. McMASTER: Q: You. Now the statement you have here is correct, is it, to the best of your ability?

A He says it is, he thinks, to the best of his ability and it is right.

Q Have you any technical knowledge of the value of these things at the date of your evacuation, that is of the general market value--any special knowledge?

10 A He says generally speaking he does. Generally speaking he does.

MR. HENTON: Q: I beg your pardon?

A Generally speaking he has the knowledge.

MR. McMASTER: Of the market at the time.

THE COMMISSIONER: Q: The figures on values which he has shown there are his estimates of value as at the date of evacuation?

A Yes.

THE COMMISSIONER: Will you establish in whose 20 custody the boat was left?

MR. McMASTER: Yes, I am just coming to that now, my lord.

Q With whom did you leave this boat when you were evacuated, or immediately before your evacuation?

A The Navy.

Q Whereabouts?

A: At

Hamfield, Vancouver Island.

Q Was there some special reason why you left it 30 with them at Hamfield instead of proceeding to
