Re: Shinjiro KOTAKE, Reg.No. 11034

This man signed a declaration to the Custodian on March 24, 1942. He was evacuated on July 18, 1942.

In his declaration he reported household effects for three rooms in house at Haysport, B. C. Key in possession of B. C. Police, Port Essington, B. C. No action was taken in regard to his chattels until June 27, 1946, when a letter was sent to the B. C. Police, Port Essington. On July 26, 1946, the B. C. Police sent us a report that no information of household effects belonging to this man was on Port Essington records. An investigation at Haysport revealed that Mr. Nelson Brew of Haysport had bought the house from Mrs. Omer Dupuis (for whom KOTAKE had been acting as caretaker) and that the purchaser included the contents of the house. Mr. Brew had reported to the B.C. Police that the only property KOTAKE had owned was a Coleman lamp, which he took with him, and a few Japanese dishes which Brew stated were in the house when Brew purchased it. KOTAKE has not so far inquired about his effects. If the information given by Mr. Brew is correct, it would appear that the goods (dishes) left in the house were not of sufficient value to warrant any further action by the Custodian.

KOTAKE reported $4.00 War Savings Certificate in his own possession. This did not come under the control of this office.

On April 7, 1942, The Canadian Fishing Company Ltd. sent to this office cheque for $200.00 to cover equity in a cannery boat. This cheque was endorsed and made payable to KOTAKE and was cheque was apparently handed to KOTAKE on or around April 14, 1942. The vessel concerned was the "Carlisle 22", Vancouver 5861, licensed in the name of the Canadian Fishing Company, to whom the vessel was released in February, 1942, from Naval custody.

The account of this man was credited with the sum of $5.00 in full settlement of claim lodged with the Japanese Fishing Vessels Disposal Committee for refund of expenses incurred at the impounding of the "Carlisle 22". Cheque for this sum was sent to KOTAKE on June 27, 1946.

This file reveals no other property.

This file reveals no liabilities.

This summary is certified to be in accordance with information on file.
