Dear Sir: Re: P/W A-328, TEZUKA, Torao.

We understand that you are desirous of obtaining information regarding the present and past resources of the above named.

We would advise that there is $489.18 to his credit in his account at the present time. He has a $1000.00 25-year endowment policy with the Sun Life Insurance Company, with an approximate cash value of $488.86. He does not own any real property and the above appear to be his only assets.

We trust this is the information you require.

Yours truly,

Dear Sir:

Re Policy No. 872,814 - Torao Tezuka (File 1073)

The beneficiary designation forms executed by the assured and submitted to us for recording have received the necessary attention and we now enclose a duplicate of the form bearing our customary endorsement, which may be handed to the assured with your approval.

In as much as the policyholder is an internee and his property is now controlled by the Custodian, our Head Office would like you to furnish us with a brief letter stating that the change of beneficiary form meets with your approval, and we trust that you will comply with the request.

Yours faithfully,
