Dear Sirs: Re: File No. 1103

My photographic equipments are chiefly consisted of:
one camera, one exposure meter, one enlarger and its accessories, tripod and lighting accessories; such as: spotlight reflector, light bulbs, and darkroom accessories; such as:
trays, scales, chemicals, safelight, developing tanks and etc.

I have here with me the camera and the exposure meter and developing tanks.

In case of my brother, H. Nikaide, 43 Murray Street, Toronto, whom I sent early to keep for me, are now parts of the enlarger, perhaps complete set by name.

In case of Mrs. Penwill of 1035-1304 Ave. W., Vancouver now parts of the enlarger and its accessories, lighting apparatus and miscellaneous articles. But by now, I believe the parts of the enlarger and its accessories have been shipped over to in case of my brother.

I feel very sorry that I could not write to you sooner.
The letter took quite a long time to reach me.

f. Nikaide

Sincerely yours.

Sadao Nikaide - 02376
