PERSONAL PROPERTY SUMMARY

Re: Harushige ONO, Reg. No. 05349

This man signed a declaration to the Custodian on March 23, 1942. He was evacuated on April 21, 1942.

CHATELS

In his declaration he reported one gill net and kitchen utensils left at Arrondale Cannery, Nass River. This cannery is operated by Anglo-British Columbia Packing Company.

There is no evidence on file to show what happened to these chattels and the files of the Arrondale Cannery and the Anglo-British Columbia Packing Company have been examined but no mention is made of chattels with the exception of nets and boats left by the Japanese. It is noted in letter of May 11, 1942, from Arrondale Cannery on this file that the boats and nets taken over by the Cannery were sold and a cheque forwarded to this office, but although ONO was credited with $15.00 from the sale of his shore boat, he received no money for the net which he stated was left at the Cannery.

On January 12, 1946, we wrote to ONO advising him that we had received no report from Arrondale Cannery regarding the chattels he declared were left there, and that possibly the net had perished and the kitchen utensils were either still there or considered to be of insufficient value to be taken by him to Vancouver. ONO replied on January 15, 1946, that when he had left the net at the Cannery it was still valuable and that he wished the net valued at the state in which he had left it. He did not mention the kitchen utensils.

We wrote to the Cannery asking for a report on the net and a reply was received from the Anglo-British Columbia Packing Company on January 22, 1946, stating that to the best of their knowledge ONO's affairs had been settled in 1942, but they would not be able to look into the matter until early in April. We again wrote to the Company regarding this matter and they replied on April 18, 1947, that the manager of the cannery would be leaving for the North on April 19, and would look into the matter. As no word was received we wrote direct to the Cannery on September 4, 1947, but as yet no report has been received.

A cheque in the amount of $15.00 was received from the Arrondale Cannery, representing payment of a shore boat bought by the Cannery from ONO. This amount was remitted to ONO on January 23, 1947.

SPECIFIED ARTICLES

Boat

ONO reported a Fish Boat valued by him at $1150.00 left at Arrondale Cannery. He stated that a balance of $800.00 was owing to the Cannery on the boat. On July 14, 1943, the Anglo-B. C. Packing Company advised that they held a Bill of Sale dated March 30, 1942, transferring title for $883.00, and on September 29, 1943, they advised that the amount which had been owing to the company by ONO was $883.30, not $800.00 as reported by ONO. ONO was asked for comments on this in letter of October 1, 1943, but no reply was received.

BANK ACCOUNT

ONO reported an account of $3.45 in the Royal Bank of Canada. This was not brought under the control of the Custodian.

This file reveals no other property of any kind.

This summary is certified to be in accordance with information on file.

MEMORANDUM: File 1282

December 12, 1944.

Re: Harushige ONO. #05349

Regarding the fishing vessel declared on JP, this vessel was not taken into custody by Naval Service.

Sale to the Anglo-British Columbia Packing Co.Ltd. was made by Harushige ONO without the knowledge of any government agency.

The vessel, was either licensed in the name of the Anglo-British Columbia Packing Co. Ltd., or was unlicensed.

On July 14, 1943, Anglo-B. C. Packing Co.Ltd. advised they held Bill of Sale, dated March 30, 1942, transferring title for $883.00, and On September 29, 1943, they advised that the amount which had been owing to the company by ONO was $883.30, not $800.00 (as shown on JP).

There was no reply from Harushige ONO to our letter of October 1, 1943, so the matter may be considered closed.

REGISTERED

Mr. Harushige ONO,
Reg. No. 05349,
ROSS PEAK, B.C.

Dear Sir:

Your file has been reviewed and the following has been noted. In your registration with the Custodian on March 23rd, 1942, you declared the following:

1 Gill net
Kitchenware
1 Fishing vessel

We have had no report from the Arrondale Cannery regarding the kitchenware or the gill net. Possibly the gill net was perished and of no value to them, otherwise they would have offered to purchase it. The kitchenware may still be there or was considered by you of insufficient value to take with you when you came down to Vancouver.

The fishing boat was transferred to the Arrondale Cannery to offset $883.00 which was owing by you to them. They state that they hold a bill of sale covering this transfer.

The Cannery advised us that they had sold a shore boat for the sum of $15.00 belonging to you, and they remitted this amount to us, which we have placed to the credit of your account here.

It is noted that you had a balance of $3.45 in the Royal Bank of Canada but this did not come under the control of the Custodian.

It would appear that we have accounted for all the property of every kind left by you in the protected area which vested in the Custodian and in order that you may confirm this, we are enclosing a stamped addressed envelope for convenience in replying.

Yours truly,

G. B. Cain

The Manager,
Arrandale Cannery,
Anglo-British Columbia Packing Co.
Naas River, B.C.

Dear Sir:

Re: Harushige ONO - Arrandale Cannery

The above named declared a 6 ply coho net which he stated he had left at the Arrandale Cannery in 1942. He claims that he has not received payment for this net.

We have had correspondence with you in this connection on several occasions. The last letter received in April, 1947 from H. Bell-Irving & Co. stated that you were taking our letter with you to the Cannery and would advise us from there. Since then we have heard nothing more.

We would therefore appreciate it if you would let us know what became of this net so that we may be able to reply to Harushige ONO.

Yours truly,

F. Matheson,
Office of the Custodian.
