Re: SAKATA, Eiichi
SAKATA, Shozo

Shozo Sakata declared nothing but nets, but his brother Eiichi Sakata declared quite a number of items left in Shozo Sakata's house. On the latter's file under date of October 20th, 1942, is a list of items moved to storage at warehouse #4, most of which probably belong to Eiichi Sakata. For easy reference, a list of these is attached.

Notes- The above goods were picked up from the home of Shozo SAKATA, 38 Houston St. Stevenson, B.C. SAKATA did not declare any chattels left in the protected area other than those which were inventoried by the Custodian. The Custodian wrote SAKATA on July 5, 1943 and again on April 19th, 1945, asking him to advise us if these goods belonged to him or his brothers Eiichi and Tamiro SAKATA, both of whom claimed goods left in his care. Also Takaharu SAKATA claimed goods left at 38 Houston Street. As no answer was received from both of these inquiries, we are today transferring all funds derived from the sale of these chattels to "Suspense" until such time as all files are reviewed and credit properly given.
