MEMORANDUM: File 1791

December 22, 1944

Harry Hachiro NAGANOBU. #09148

There is no record of a car owned by this man having been surrendered to the R.C.M.P. He did not declare ownership of a motor-vehicle. No doubt the car was disposed of by Naganobu prior to the date on which cars were surrendered.

Dear Mr. Driscumbury.

In reply to your letter regarding $10.00 owing to Dr. Clark, I believe the amount to be correct. I would be more than glad to pay off my former accounts but because of the expenses incidental to evacuation & the losses involved in the liquidation of my business, I must admit that my financial position does not allow me yet to meet all my obligations.

My position is temporary here & my employment here will not extend further than the end of next month. I have not yet the slightest idea what or where my next position will be. I am at present attempting to support my wife & two children so I am sure you will appreciate my financial situation.

I should like to assure you, however, that at the earliest possible moment, I will forward you the above mentioned amount.

I remain,

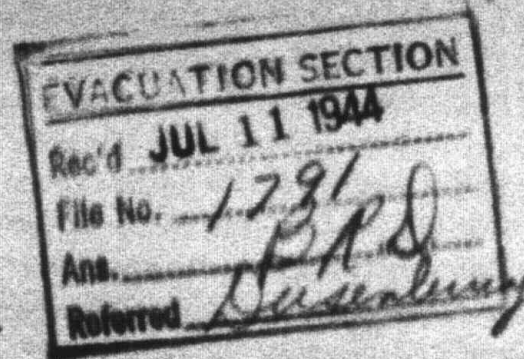

Yours very truly,
Harry Driscumbury
