GENERAL SUMMARY

July 8, 1946.

Re: Hide YOSHIKUNI, Reg. No. 07540

This woman signed a declaration to the Custodian on April 7, 1942. She was evacuated on September 10, 1942.

In her declaration she reported chattels left with Bloedel, Stewart & Welsh Ltd., Great Central, B.C. These chattels were also declared by her husband, file No. 2108, which file shows that 10 pieces were shipped to him and in October, 1942 Bloedel, Stewart & Welsh Ltd. wrote us that all the effects of this man had been shipped.

She reported a $5.00 War Savings Certificate and $2.00 in War Savings Certificates in her own possession. These did not come under the control of this office.

This file reveals no other property of any kind.

This file reveals no liabilities of any kind.

This summary is certified to be in accordance with information on file.

Dear Sirs:-

Attention Mr. H.L. Brown

Re: Denji YOSHIKUNI, Deceased

Thank you very much for your letter dated August 19th informing us that Mr. Denji Yoshikuni, Registration No. 07529, had died at Hastings Park Clearing Station on July 12th. Your letter places your claim with us for $50.00 covering the above-mentioned's burial expenses which you request us to recover for you from his estate.

Upon checking our files covering Mr. and Mrs. Yoshikuni, we find that Mr. Yoshikuni had no liquid assets but that Mrs. Yoshikuni declared to us on April 7th that she was holding as of that date one War Savings Certificate valued at $5.00 and War Savings Stamps valued at approximately $2.00.

In addition, Mr. and Mrs. Yoshikuni both declared that remaining in Grand Central, B.C. was one sewing machine, 1 box of kitchen utensils, a bed and some Japanese food. To all intents and purposes, therefore, to the best of our knowledge Mr. Denji Yoshikuni had no estate, as Mrs. Yoshikuni presumably may take the stand that the sewing machine is her own property. In fact, however, the sewing machine has vested in the Custodian and if it is your desire that we take further action in this connection we shall be happy to discuss with Mrs. Yoshikuni the question of our arranging for the sale of the sewing machine in order that the burial expenses of her late husband may be settled.

On the other hand, if we do not hear from you further in this connection we shall take it that you do not desire us to take any action in this connection in view of the nature and extent of Mrs. Yoshikuni's assets. Neither Mr. or Mrs. Yoshikuni have declared any life insurance or bank accounts.

Yours truly,

R.P. Alexander,
Manager
