PERSONAL PROPERTY SUMMARY

Files: 14693 & 2162

Res Saburo & Misako YAGI.#11234 & CO771

Saburo Yagi was evacuated March 12,1942. He signed JP September

Saburo Tagi was evacuated March 12,1942. He signed JP September 5,1943. His wife, Missko Yagi, was evacuated June 5, 1942. She signed JP March 27,1942.

In her JP Mrs. Tagi declared the following personal property:

"At P.O. Box 667, Dyke Rd., E. Richmond, New Westminster, B. C.

1 New Electric Motor Singer Sewing Machine

l Letest Model Hardwood Dresser l New Double Bed

1 Latest Model New Kitchen Stove

1 how barge Truck

Chinaware, Silverware & Kitchenware - valued at $100.00.*

Saburo Yagi declared, "About $500.00 worth of furniture, bedsets and stove, etc. are in the boathouse which is located on Dyke Road, East Richmond, B.C."

Total value $400.00

On Sept. 18,1943, Mr. Green wrote Mr.& Mrs. Yagi, informing them that soon after evacuation the house of Sakuji Kanegawa (which had been occupied by this couple) had been investigated, but no articles of any value were found. The house had been examined by the police and found to be properly locked and nailed. The letter suggested that, as the house had been in an isolated spot, it was likely that Mrs. Yagi had made some other arrangements for storing her effects. A request for further information was made in the letter.

No reply was received from Mr. & Mrs. Yagi and no further action taken by the Custodian.

The goods listed above was the only property declared by these people.

The records of the Japan & Canada Trust Company showed a balance of $1.21 on deposit in the account of Saburo Yagi, of Ocean Falls. We have a record of only one Saburo Yagi, and he was formerly at Ocean Falls. Therefore the money has been credited to Saburo Yagi and will be remitted to him.

Sakuhei Isukawa filed claim for $50.00 against Saburo Yagi, of Ocean Falls. This claim has not been referred to Yagi, because he had, until recently, no funds in Gustodian account,; the funds now in the account are too insignificant to bother applying against this alleged debt. Isukawa is being supplied with the present address of Yagi.

MEMORANDUM

File Nos.: 2162 14693

January 18th, 1944

to: Pitt

From: Mr. Green

Bet Mr. & Mrs. Seburo YAGI

No answer has been received to ours of September 18th, 1943, to the husband and wife. Reference to file 1384, being that of the owner of the premises where these goods were allegedly left, shows that the writer had considerable doubt as to the semilmeness of the declaration on that file. The same appears to apply to the two Japanese under densideration. If they did leave their belongings in this unsuarded spot, they were most negligent.

We recommend that no further steps be taken in this matter and without additional particulars, no possible claim be considered.
