GENERAL SUMMARY

File No. 2164

October 7, 1947.

Re: Junji YABUKI, Reg. No. 10226

This man signed a declaration to the Custodian on March 19, 1942. He was evacuated on March 21, 1942.

Prior to his evacuation, YABUKI was a logger in the employ of the McNair Shingle Company, (Suzuki Camp) Stillwater, B. C.

CHATELS

YABUKI reported tools of trade on his JP Form. However, as the evacuation from Stillwater was very sudden, the Japanese had no time to arrange for the shipment or storage of their goods, and little or no Stillwater chattels have been accounted for. (See Mr. Green's memo of April 30, 1943.) Nothing further can be done in regard to YABUKI's tools unless he should claim for their loss.

YABUKI reported an account in the Tamura Bank, Powell and Cambie Sts. of about $1200.00. The Tamura Bank is the Japan and Canada Trust Savings Company Limited. The list of depositors received from the Company does not include YABUKI's name as having an account with the Company. It is therefore presumed that YABUKI withdrew this amount prior to his evacuation.

This file reveals no other property of any kind.

This file reveals no liabilities.

This summary is certified to be in accordance with information on file.

Re: INOUE, Stakichi
MIYAMOTO, (Saburo) Wrs. Hideo

There is very little that can be done in the way of protection of Japanese property at Stillwater.

Mr. Logan visited this place in June 1942 and reports on A/76 as follows:

"The two camps, Taira and Suzuki, are reached from Stillwater as follows:

4	Miles by car,
9	Miles by boat,
1	Mile on foot,
4	Miles by boat,
4	Miles on foot.

Total:---22 1/2 Miles

"No one can get in without Mr. McHear knowing, as his craft must be used to cross the lakes.

"Mr. Logan checked all the equipment to be found in the two camp bunk houses and lists are given herewith. It was quite impossible to decide which tools belonged to which man. Additionally, there are also some tools left in the bush which can only be located by the Japanese themselves.

"In short, such equipment as has been left behind, is perfectly safe as it could not be removed without Mr. McHear knowing about it. However, for the most part, it cannot be identified and we shall therefore have to advise the Japanese concerned that we can only assume that the tools they have declared to the Custodian are actually there. It would cost more than the value of these tools to take them away."

Unfortunately, it appears that this report is a little optimistic as thefts of the McHear Company's equipment has since taken place. There is nothing, however, that can be
