PERSONAL PROPERTY SUMMARY

File No. 2856

Oct. 19/46

RE: Katsushi KUMAGAI, Reg. No. 03594

This file reveals the above owned no real property in any protected area of B.C., and did not carry any Fire Insurance.

CHATELS:

The above, who made his declaration to the Custodian on May 28/42, declared store fixtures at 242 Princess St., Vancouver. Our field staff was unable to find anything at said address, and several letters advising the above of this fact were returned to this office marked "Unclaimed".

A claim for the balance of account in the sum of $325.46 was received from Storey & Campbell, when it was disclosed that this company was holding his shoe machinery. Direct negotiations between Storey & Campbell and KUMAGAI resulted in the sale of the machinery and on Feb. 25/44 we received from Storey & Campbell the sum of $308.29, which sum was remitted by us to KUMAGAI on March 3/44, which closed his account with the Custodian.

This file reveals the above owned no specified articles.

No property interests other than those mentioned above are found on this file.

The above summary is certified to be in accordance with the information on file.

Dear Sir,

Re Katsushi KUMAGAI #03594

We quote in part a letter received from the above named of 594 Bathurst St, Toronto, dealing with the disposal of some shoemaking machinery to Messrs Storey & Campbell:-

"Will you kindly send a permit to Storey & Campbell Limited, 518 Beatty Street, Vancouver, B.C. saying it is alright for me to sell my machinery back to this company.

"I had a shoe repairing business and I purchased machinery from this company but at the time I left it was not all paid for, and the company decided to hold the machinery for me until they heard from me. I have decided to sell the machinery back to the company, as they have offered me a fair price, and there was no use in delaying the matter as the interest was accruing on the amount owing, and the future being unsettled, I decided this was the best course."

"There is a small sum of $308.39 coming to me, and as they firm asks for a permit, will you kindly attend to this at your convenience."

Regarding the latter part of the quotation as this individual is now established in Toronto we would have no objection to your letting him have the balance of his account with you.

Yours truly,

M. L. Brown

Dear Sir:

At this time there is a demand for shoe repair machinery, and we could sell the Model 52 Stitcher with motor if this is acceptable to you. The price we could offer you would be $500.00.

On this machine, at the present time, you owe us $330.36 so that the net cash payment to you would be $169.64.

Please advise us if you wish to sell this machine as above.

Yours very truly,
