Re: MIYAMOTO, (Nobuko) Mrs. Hideo

Attached file covers another of the troublesome Stillwater cases. I do not like to leave things as they are, but can see no alternative for the time being. When all the Stillwater people get settled down, we might be able to arrange with the Security Commission for some of their property to be delivered to them.

9	Miles by boat,
1	Mile on foot,
4	Miles by boat,
4	Miles on foot.

Total --- 22 Miles

"No one can get in without Mr. McHair knowing, as his craft must be used to cross the lakes.

"Mr. Logan checked all the equipment to be found in the two camp bunk houses and lists are given herewith. It was quite impossible to decide which tools belonged to which man. Additionally, there are also some tools left in the bush which can only be located by the Japanese themselves.

"In short, such equipment as has been left behind, is perfectly safe as it could not be removed without Mr. McHair knowing about it. However, for the most part, it cannot be identified and we shall therefore have to advise the Japanese concerned that we can only assume that the tools they have declared to the Custodian are actually there. It would cost more than the value of these tools to take them away."

Unfortunately, it appears that this report is a little optimistic as thefts of the McHair Company's equipment has since taken place. There is nothing, however, that can be
