Dear Sir:

We regret to say that we have been unable to trace the box of tools referred to in your letter of the 4th inst.

The building at 393 Powell Street was demolished by the Vancouver City authorities a couple of months ago, but upon enquiry, they state that nothing was found in the building.

We would appreciate your giving us any further information as to the name and address, if possible, of the person into whose care you entrusted them. Upon receipt of such information, we will endeavour to make further enquiries.

Yours truly,
