Vancouver, B.C.

Dear Sir:

I received the framed photo sometime earlier this month. I wish to inform you that it does not belong to us, the couple framed is a stranger to us. I do not understand how my name got affixed on it.

Would you please let me know what I am to do with it? Until then I shall leave it at the above address, and dispose of the same if I do not hear from you soon.

Yours truly,

Nobu Sato

Miss Nobu SATO,
Reg. No. 05602,
531 Sargent Ave.,
Winnipeg, Manitoba.

Dear Madam:

We wish to advise that on May 17th, 1949, we shipped to you prepaid, via Canadian Pacific Express, one parcel containing a large framed photo which was in our storage.

When said parcel is received by you, please acknowledge receipt of same for our records.

In the event that this photo does not belong to you, please communicate with this office by mail as the Custodian is closing out his storage warehouse in Vancouver. It may be that you will find some means of identification on examination of same and in that case we should be advised in your letter. You might also advise us at the same time whether this photo is of little or no value and would not justify further shipping charges.

Yours truly,

W. J. Johnston,
Office of the Custodian.
