IWASAKI, Kichisaburo #01588

Dear Sir:

The above person had signed for repatriation and his one container of effects had been shipped in one of the six freight cars from Tashme, the contents of which were billed to Japan on the S.S. General Meigs loaded here August 1st. We were unable to intercept this baggage, so it is now on its way to Japan. The consignee of all the chattels, Masajiro Yoshioka, was told of this, and thought he might be able to locate this man's wife in Japan if still alive.

Yours truly,

C. W. Fisher
