GENERAL SUMMARY

File No. 3296

25th July, 1946.

Re: Taro (Thomas) MINURA - Reg. No. 11892

The above Japanese declared no assets or liabilities when registering with the Custodian, but later through the Department of Labour filed a claim against Miss Eva Thoms for wages in the amount of $65.25. Miss Thoms was written to several times but no reply was received, and our agent was unable to locate her as she apparently married and moved away. ✓ they were so notified

This file reveals no other assets or liabilities and needs no further administration. The file may therefore be closed.

The above summary is certified to be in accordance with the information on file.

Dear Madam:

Re: T. MIMURA

We wrote to you on November 24th, December 28th and January 8th regarding the claim the above Japanese filed against you through the B. C. Security Commission, amounting to $69.25 owing for wages.

We must advise that we have received a communication dated January 18th from the B. C. Security Commission, addressed to this office, requesting us to let them have particulars of this claim that we might have on hand at this time. As we have had no response from you to our letters in this connection, we must advise that unless you honor us with a reply within ten days of your receipt of this registered letter, we shall be obliged to pass this collection over to the Custodian's solicitors.

Yours truly,

R. D. Richardson,
Farm Department.

Attention: Mr. M. L. Brown

Dear Sir:

Re: T. MIMURA, Reg. #11890

In reply to your letter dated January 13th in connection with the above Japanese filing a claim against Miss Eva B. Thoms, Mt. Lehman, B. C., we must advise that up to this time of writing we have written three letters regarding this matter to Miss Thoms and we have as yet not been honored with any reply. We are, therefore, unable to advise any progress with the above's claim.

We are, however, again writing a registered letter to Miss Thoms today and unless we hear from her by return mail, we shall have a representative contact her in this respect, at which time we shall advise you accordingly.

Yours truly,

R. D. Richardson,
Farm Department.
