Dear Sir:

On your registration card on file here, dated April 13th, 1942, signed by you, there is no reference to any property owned by you in the protected area of British Columbia. However, when registering with the R.C.M.P. you stated apparently that you owned 1234 W. 6th Ave., Vancouver, where you were living. Is this correct, and if so, did you dispose of it before you were evacuated? Perhaps you did not own the property but were merely a tenant there.

Please let us know by return mail so we will have the information on your file.

Yours truly,

B.R. Dusenbury,
For Office of the Custodian.
