Dear Sir:

My mother, brother and I had decided to go to Japan and my father to stay in Canada. But now my brother has changed his mind and will stay in Canada. Therefore just my mother and I will go to Japan but then we will not be able to earn our living. Since I am under age just my mother signed to go to Japan. I would be grateful if you would please cancel her repatriation papers and allow her to stay in Canada with the rest of her family.

Sincerely Yours,

"Sumie Nishiyama"
