I am acting for the Dominion Government in connection with the Japanese Property Claims Commission. Pursuant to the instructions of the Hon. Mr. Justice Henry I. Bird, Commissioner, I beg to advise you that the grounds upon which I am basing my reply to this claim, in so far as I am able to determine at the present time, will be the contention that the building was attached to land which the claimant did not own and, consequently, the claimant was not the owner of the building.

KAMACHI, Shigeji,
Registration No. 02123

We have your letter of December 19th in which you ask for the address of Mr. Susai Sasaki on whose land it is indicated that the above named Japanese erected a 3-room house, approximately 20 x 24' for which he is claiming the sum of $1,025.00.

We believe that the correct spelling of Mr. Sasaki's first name is Shusai, who owned Lot 4 of Fraction of Section 1, Block 4, North Range 4 West Map 4193 Municipality of Richmond District of New Westminster.

For your information, Mr. Sasaki has filed claim in connection with the sale of this property, and he gives as his present address, 627 Pacific Ave., Winnipeg, Manitoba.

RE: CLAIM ON PERSONAL PROPERTY BY SHIGEJI KAMACHI

File 3612.

Amount	On	Jap. Valuation	Sale Price	Remarks
$1,025.00	A 3-room House (approx. 20' x 24') built on rented ground	$1,025.00 (Declared cost of construction, see "Jp")	None

This claim appears to be based on a Messuage Tenure Interest in a house on leased ground, which, as is very frequently the case between Japanese, is not protected by any agreement between the parties concerned.

In his claim the address of his house is given as 1072 Dyke Road, Richmond, B. C., but the file lacks the positive identification of any legal description, and perusal of his landlord's file discloses no reference to this building. The landlord named by Shigeji KAMACHI (Shusai SASAKI, File 5963) was the registered owner of 8 parcels of Real Property, the proceeds from the sale of which have all been credited to his account, and remitted to him.

PART I, REVISED STATUTES OF CANADA 1927, CHAPTER 99.

JAPANESE PROPERTY CLAIMS COMMISSION

(THE HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE R.I. BIRD, COMMISSIONER).

Kamloops, B. C., December 10th, 1947.

IN THE MATTER OF THE CLAIM OF SHIGESHI KANAGHI

PROCEEDINGS AT HEARING.

APPEARANCES:

J.W.G. HUNTER, Esq., appearing for the Dominion Government.

R. J. McMASTER, Esq., appearing for the Claimant.

A. WATSON, Esq., Secretary.
G.N.R. UPTON, Esq., Official Interpreter.

2
S. Kanuchi.
(Discussion).

MR. McMASTER: Can I have the claim form, please, Mr. Watson? We will require the Interpreter in this case, my lord.

SHIGETI KANUCHI, the Claimant herein, being first duly sworn, testified through the Interpreter as follows:

MR. HUNTER: My lord, before any evidence is heard in this case, I have a preliminary motion to make.

THE COMMISSIONER: All right.

10 MR. HUNTER: It is our submission, my lord, that the house for which the claimant is claiming compensation was not owned by him, as he built it on land owned by another person. Accordingly it became part of the real property, and unless there is some agreement between the owner and himself whereby he could remove it for which we could get no acknowledgment from the owner of the land, the property belongs to the holder of the land.

20 THE COMMISSIONER: Have you the claim form?

MR. McMASTER: Yes, I have it.

THE COMMISSIONER: Would you hand it up, unless you want to use it?

MR. McMASTER: I will want to use it after, but we had better dispose of this matter first.

MR. HUNTER: I might add, purely for your information, my lord, this property was sold together with other property of the owner of the land, and the proceeds for everything were credited to this other chap Sasaki.

30

THE COMMISSIONER: Well, did I understand you to say that the owner of the land did not concede that any bargain had been made between him and Kamechi?

MR. HUNTER: Not to us he didn't.

THE COMMISSIONER: Did he repudiate the suggestion there was any such agreement?

MR. HUNTER: We were just unable to get any information from him, my lord.

MR. McMASTER: I might ask my learned friend as to whether there is any letter on file in the Custodian's file in which they sought to obtain that information.

MR. HUNTER: I don't think there is, my lord.

As far as I know we have nothing to show Kamechi owned the property. The legal title showed it was in the name of Sasaki and the Custodian proceeded on that assumption.

MR. McMASTER: That is a different statement from what my learned friend made before. I took it from his first statement he had sought to ascertain from Sasaki as to whether he acknowledged this man Kamechi owned the house, or didn't own the house and whether there was any arrangement. Now I take it there is nothing on file to show any attempts had been made by the Custodian to ascertain that fact. I would like to know where I stand.

THE COMMISSIONER: I would like you to make the position clear, Mr. Hunter, not that I am saying that there is any obligation on the Custodian to have made such an investigation.

S. Kamachi.
(Discussion).

10 MR. HUNTER: All I can say at the present time, and I am sorry if I have misled the Court, because I must admit I assumed there was some correspondence, but when I look into it I find no correspondence, and I rather doubt if there is any on file back in Vancouver. I think they must have assumed from the title in the Registry Office -- the title was in Sasaki's name, and they must have assumed the house was his, it being part of the reality.

THE COMMISSIONER: It would appear reasonable unless some express agreement was made between Kamachi and Sasaki that Kamachi owned the house. It is reasonable that the Custodian would proceed on the assumption that the owner of the house was the owner of the land.

20 MR. HUNTER: I shouldn't like the Court to be misled, my lord. In his J.P. form he did claim that a four room wooden bungalow on the Riverside Post Office Box 970, Dyke Road, Richmond, B.C., belonged to him and that the declarant built this house himself at a cost of $1025.00, but when we come over to the statement of real property occupied, it merely describes the location again and says, "is built on land belonging to", and then under landlord's name and address it says Mr. Susui Sasaki, who it recites as residing on the same lot of land, and then it 30 says, "Particulars of lease and rent". It says,

"Leave none", and then it says, "Ground rent $12.00 per annum paid up to date".

THE COMMISSIONER: Now, as I understand it, the Custodian did sell the land on which this house stood.

MR. HUNTER: And the house, my lord.

THE COMMISSIONER: And the house with it.

MR. HUNTER: Yes, my lord.

THE COMMISSIONER: And accounted to the owner of the land?

MR. HUNTER: Correct.

THE COMMISSIONER: I will hear you now, Mr. McMaster.

MR. McMASTER: My lord, I wonder in the circumstances, I haven't had an opportunity to see all the material filed, and I wonder whether it would be wise to stand this case down until we sit in Lilloet to give the Custodian an opportunity to produce the file to me and give me an opportunity to get in touch with Sasaki and see what he has to say.

THE COMMISSIONER: I think that is desirable. We can stand it down to the next hearings in Kamloops.

MR. McMASTER: I think this claimant lives in Lilloet.
Oh, I am sorry, he is in Kamloops.

THE COMMISSIONER: There is no inconvenience for him to come again?

MR. McMASTER: No. The only inconvenience is for him to wait, but I am sure he would rather do that and have the matter clarified.

THE COMMISSIONER: He will have to do that, anyway.

6
S. Kamechi.
(Dismission).

Is that satisfactory to you, Mr. Hunter?

MR. HUNTER: Yes, my lord.

I hereby certify the foregoing to be a true and accurate transcript of the proceedings hereto.
