Dear Madam:

Re: Trunk.

We have for reply your letters of February 16th and March 17th.

In your Custodian release form dated January 11th, you stated that the trunk was in the house of Mr. Mase at the Pacific Coast Cannery. In your later letters you stated that the trunk was left in the house of Mr. Shintaro Shimizu. We were not able to locate the trunk in either house. We believe that Mrs. Kusu Shimizu (mother of Shintaro) took with her to Greenwood, some of her effects which included three trunks. One of these may be yours. We suggest you write to Mrs. Shimizu, C/o B. C. Security Commission, Greenwood, and ask her if she has your trunk with her or if she knows what has become of it, and upon receipt of her reply to you please advise us further.
