Dear Sir:

Replying to your letter of the 15th of June addressed to the Custodian, Vancouver, regarding the account of $3.85 rendered to you. We have checked our records again and find that the charge is for a drive roller for the A. B. C. Washer, purchased at Duncan in November, 1941, and not a battery as first noted.

Our Victoria office only took over the Duncan store, which is now closed, at the end of last June and we have been endeavoring to locate you for sometime.

This should now fully explain the charge and we see no reason why this account should not be cleaned up. Kindly let us hear from you by return.

Yours very truly,

C. J. McDOWELL
