Dear Sir:

In your registration with the Custodian you declared personal property at 396 Powell Street. Our representative called at your former address, with the purpose of offering protection to your chattels, but was there informed that you had sold or otherwise disposed of all of your chattels prior to your evacuation. If this is correct, we assume that you have no other chattels in the restricted area of British Columbia requiring our protection - in which event we would ask you to kindly sign and return the attached copy of this letter for our record.

Your co-operation will be appreciated.

Yours truly,

Geo. B. Spain

Dear Sir:

According to your registration with the Custodian,
you left:

2 beds	5 chairs
2 tables	1 bureau
1 carpet	1 bookcase
1 cabinet	1 writing-desk
2 Singer sewing- machines

at the World Hotel, 396 Powell Street.

According to your letter of November 27th, you left at this address considerably more than the items mentioned above.

The World Hotel was sold and we were obliged to remove all chattels to the Custodian's Central Storage, but none of the goods removed answered the description given in your letter - nor were they marked with your name. In an endeavour to locate these chattels for you, we would be pleased to know if such chattels were under mortgage or lien to others; or please inform us who was holding them for you. No doubt you left your chattels in charge of some particular person and, with full particulars from you, we will institute further investigations.

Yours truly,
