PERSONAL PROPERTY SUMMARY

File No. 4722

August 23, 1946.

Re: Kikuyo TOMINAGA, Reg. No. 08937

This woman signed a declaration to the Custodian on April 20, 1942; she was evacuated on September 2, 1942.

In her declaration she reported a large quantity of chattels, as shown by Chattel Schedule. These have been quite well accounted for by shipments and sale. The only items that do not seem to be accounted for are some curtain rods and blinds, which Mr. Matt Brown reported were old. These probably were discarded as unsaleable. A carton containing clothing, and believed to be the item numbered 11 on the declaration, was received from Cumberland and stored at 604 Cordova Street, on June 9, 1945, Inventory No. 789. Mr. Wills will be asked to look into this.

The account of this woman was credited with the net proceeds of the chattels sold, in the amount of $81.59.

Mrs. TOMINAGA reported having in her possession her husband's life policy with the Manufacturers' Life Insurance Co. This did not come under the control of this office.

A Singer Sewing Machine, not reported by Mrs. TOMINAGA, but reported by the Singer Sewing Machine Co. was shipped to her after the balance due on this machine was paid, according to information received from that company.

This file reveals no other property.

This summary is certified to be in accordance with information on file.

Re: TOMINAGA, Yoshichi and TOMINAGA (Kikuyo) Mrs.
Yoshichi.

Further to Memo to File of May 25th, Mr. Matt Brown has now sent us a list of what remains in storage. This agrees exactly with the declaration of the husband which was made on November 9th, 1942 after a number of the original items declared had been shipped to this couple, with the following exceptions:

(1) Items 4, 6, 7, 29 and 31 (should be 33) have now been shipped and do not appear in Mr. Brown's list.

(2) Item No. 13, not mentioned by the husband, is probably the unnumbered item being the bundle of old curtain rods.

(3) There are only 4 saws not 12 and Mr. Brown thinks there never were 12.

From: Mr. Green

Re: Mr. & Mrs. Yoshichi TOMINAGA

The wife declared an itemized list of thirty-eight pieces of belongings plus twelve saws. Shipment of some of these has been made and the balance left in Royston storage as per Mr. Brown's report of January 18th. Since that time items Nos. 6, 7, and 33 have been applied for on February 17th and Nos. 4 and 29 on March 24th. These may be assumed to have been shipped.

Mr. Brown appears to have omitted from the storage list Nos. 11, 13, and 33, the latter since shipped.

The husband has now registered and declared the items shown in storage as per Mr. Brown's letter of January 18th. This has now been reduced by the items mentioned as shipped above. It should be noticed that he includes No. 11 (cushions etc., miscellaneous) but excludes No. 13, (blinds and curtain rods). He numbers bed spring and sides wrongly as 31 instead of 33 and also claims 12 saws of which Matt Brown could only find 4.

A copy of this memorandum is being sent to Mr. Brown with the request that he let us know exactly what is now left in storage.

Finally, there is also a sewing machine belonging to the wife in Victoria on which there is $59.00 owing to the Singer Sewing Machine Company.
