Dear Sir: Re: Policy No. 473,357 - Nishijima, Shigeo (D/C)

In reply to your enquiry of the 26th instant we are advised by our Toronto office, who have the matter of claim in hand, that the payment of the proceeds is being held pending release of Succession Duties from the province of British Columbia, this being necessary because of the fact that the proceeds are payable to a beneficiary of the ordinary class, namely the brother of the deceased.

The beneficiary has been notified of these requirements and when they have been met the settlement cheque will be forwarded to you for delivery to him.

Yours faithfully,

[Signature]

~~MEMORANDUM~~ - ~~MR. McARTHUR~~

Attached is file No. 11662. Life insurance money of $123.07 is being paid to this office by the Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada for the credit of Mr. Toshio NISHIJIMA, Beneficiary. Mr. Nishijima himself has borrowed about $150.00, he states, for the payment of last hospital bills, cremation, burial, and funeral expenses. He wants his insurance money. I think it should be released to him in full regardless of other claims we have on file against Toshio Nishijima.

This is a matter for the attention of the Administration Department rather than of the Claims Department, and if you agree, I would appreciate your arranging to have the necessary action taken.
