No reply was received to letter of May 13, 1946. It must therefore be assumed that had TAKEDA made any settlement he would have advised us and his failure to reply to our letters was due to his inability or unwillingness to settle his claims.

Two War Savings Certificates being held for him have been cashed in since his departure for Japan. The proceeds will be used to settle the claims in the following pro rata division: (11.66 %)

| | | | |
|----------------|---------|------------|--------|
| O Kondo Co. | $19.96 | - pro rata | $2.33 |
