Dear Sir:

In your registration with the Custodian you mentioned personal property left in the custody of Francis Millerd & Co., Ltd., Vancouver.

With the purpose of protecting your chattels, we requested the said company to provide us with a signed list, and are now in receipt of their reply informing us that no articles were left in their care by you.

We are of the opinion that some other member of your family possibly registered your chattels in his name. The reply we have received from Francis Millerd & Co., Ltd., suggests that your chattels were stored under the name of I. Uyeda. Possibly these are the same chattels, and if we are correct in our assumption, please inform us.

Yours truly,

Geo. B. Spain

There has been a claim for $2.50 lodged against you in this office by Dr. M. Uchida. If this is correct please forward remittance in settlement of same, making cheque payable to the "Custodian of Enemy Property."
