Re: Masue (Mrs. Shinosuke) KARIYA
Registration No. 05011.

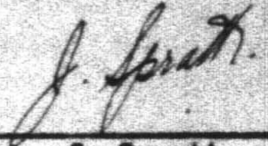

CHATELS:

Japanese declared certain chattels to be left in charge of Mr. Point, Atlas Cannery, Steveston, B.C. We were unable to locate any of these goods and no goods have been moved under her name, from the Atlas Cannery.

1 bed to be left in house of K. MATSUO, Box 157, Steveston, B.C., according to JP Declaration of April 23, 1942. Upon reviewing MATSUO'S file it is noted that this bed was left in MATSUO'S house and abandoned as it had no selling value.

Nothing further regarding chattels to be found on file and the above covers all chattels declared to this office.

I hereby certify that the above summary is in accordance with information on file.

Dear "adam:

Thank you for your letter of March 11th telling us that you had left a bed at the house of Kametaro MATSUO, 7th and Dyke, Steveston.

A review of the file of Kametaro MATSUO reveals that when this property was sold, all the chattels were removed to our auction room and sold. It is noted that the bed belonging to you was left in the house and abandoned as it had no selling value.

Yours truly,

Dear Sirs:

res: $53.90 - Sajiro WAKITA v.
Mrs. Masue KARIYA

We submitted the above claim to Mrs. Masue KARIYA for payment and have received reply apparently written by someone on her behalf, from which we quote as follows:

"Balance $53.90 is that Shinnosuke Kariya had been borrowed many years ago. he is dead 7 years ago. Mrs. M. Kariya a widow now. the maintenance she gets is not sufficient for the daily existence.

She can't afford now. She'll pay for it sometime later if she become a good financial position."

In view of the foregoing, and the possibility of the claim being outlawed, we shall take no further action. Her address is:

Registration No. 05011,
Greenwood, B.C.

should you wish to write to her in connection with this claim.

Yours truly,

Dear Madam:

The B.C. Electric Railway Co. Ltd. has lodged with the Custodian a claim amounting to $1.99 against "T. Kariya, Atlas Cannery, Steveston."

On looking into the matter we find that you are the only one of that name who lived at the Atlas Cannery, and we are, therefore, submitting the claim to you. If you agree that the claim is correct kindly make a remittance to the "Custodian of Enemy Property."

If you are satisfied the claim is not against you, you must know what other KARIYA lived at the Cannery, so please supply us with his or her full name and, if possible, present address.

Thanking you in advance for a reply by return mail.

Yours truly,

A. McAlister,
Claims Department.
