Re-Your letter on September 20th

Dear Sir:—

My life insurance is due every June the fifteenth. However as I'm standing at present, I can not do a thing about it, since we evacuated from coast last year, I've been on relief for past six months, so as you requested on your letter that I have funds to my credit, my mother-in-law has a house on eleventh Avenue in Harlem which I'm looking after her now willing to pay my insurance out of her rent money.
