Dear Sir;

The claim of $1,782.00, expense incurred on behalf of my late husband, lodged by the Provincial Board of Health with you, the Custodian, is impossible for me to meet. For we earn hardly enough for our barest necessity of living.

And wasn't he getting well and ready to come home soon? But ~~(through)~~ an "accident" through the doctors he died so I should think ~~we~~ we should be paid.

I would like you to note

we are definitely in no position
whatsoever to make ~~this~~ payment of this claim even on instalment.

Truly,
M. Onno

Dear Madam:

The Provincial Board of Health have lodged with the Custodian a claim of $1,782.00, which they state represents expenses incurred on behalf of your late husband, Tadao.

Will you please inform this office if you are in a position to make payment on this claim. If you are not able to pay the whole claim, are you able to pay a small installment? If so, we might get the Provincial Collector to withdraw the rest of the claim against you.

Please reply to this letter at your earliest convenience, as we wish to get the matter settled one way or another at an early date.

Yours truly,
