Dear Sir:

Re: HARADA, Yoshio
Savings Account No. 2441

Under date of June 2nd I advised you that the above noted party had been interned and that his bank balance of approximately $500.00 should be blocked and no withdrawals made without the approval and consent of this office.

It has now been found that there are apparently two men by the name of Yoshio Harada and the one whose bank balance you carry is not the man who is interned. The Custodian, therefore, has no interest in this account and it may be released for the use of Mr. Harada.

Yours truly,

Dear Sir:

Re: HARADA, Yoshio

Under date of July 2nd I wrote you in connection with the above mentioned party advising that he was an Internee and asking your Company to supply this office with Form D covering his $1,000.00 Life Insurance Policy No. 793,383.

It has now been found that there are evidently two men with the same name and that the Yoshio Harada who held the above mentioned policy with your Company is not the Yoshio Harada who is interned. The Custodian, therefore, is not interested in the Insurance Policy and Mr. Harada may carry on any transactions in connection with it that he wishes.

Yours truly,

The Insured paid $47.50 on account of the July, 1942 premium. The July, 1942 dividend amounts to $1.65. We have therefore considered the third annual premium as having been paid in full when figuring how long the policy would carry under Automatic Premium Loan.

Dear Sir:

Re: P/W P-1375, HARADA, Yoshio.

According to information submitted by the above noted Internee he operated an account with you, the balance being approximately $500.00. Would you be kind enough therefore to please let me have a statement of this man's account, and at the same time accept notice that no withdrawals can be made without the approval and consent of this office.

Your courteous co-operation in this matter will be appreciated.

Yours faithfully,

Edgar T. Read.
