Dear Sir:

We acknowledge yours of the 22nd, instant, and note your remarks as to an outboard motor which you claim was left with the Custodian.

We have reviewed your file and find that you did not declare any personal property whatsoever. It does appear however, that you received from the C. P. R. from Port Alice twenty three pieces of household goods and that five packages belonging to you from the same place were delivered to the Traders Service Limited on your order to the C. P. R. We have checked the waybill and the outboard motor does not appear on this.

Yours truly,
