PERSONAL PROPERTY SUMMARY

File 5804

February 6, 1946

Re: Ichimatsu NAKATSU
Reg. No. 11869

In his declaration to the Custodian, April 22, 1942, this man s stated that he owned no property of any kind left in the protected area.

On November 16, 1942, the B. G. Security Commission referred to two bed springs left at 604 Cordova Street belonging to this man. Nothing further is shown in the file regarding these bed s prings, but a bed and folding bed, identified as the property of this man, were sold at auction on March 14, 1945, for the net sum of $2.63, which was credited to his account.

This file reveals no other property.

This summary is certified to be in accordance with information on file.

Dear Sir:

Re: Ichimatsu NAKATSU
Reg. No. 11369

In your letter to us under date of November 16th, 1942 you make reference to two Bed Springs left at 604 East Cordova Street.

We are unable to trace these chattels
in our records and for the sake of regularity, will be pleased to know where you obtained the information contained in your letter mentioned above.

Yours truly,

Geo. B. Spain,

Mr. Ichimatsu HAKATSU,
Registration No. 11869,
GREENWOOD, D. C.

Dear Sir:

This is to inform you that a balance of $2.63 is standing to your credit with this office.

This sum represents the net proceeds from the sale of a bed and a folding bed, identified as your property, and sold at auction by this office.

Your declaration to the Custodian, on April 22, 1942, stated that you owned no property left in the protected area, and the two beds which have been sold are the only items of property belonging to you of which this office has any record.

It would appear that we have accounted for all the property of every kind left by you in the protected area which vested in the Custodian and, in order that you may confirm this, we enclose a stamped, addressed envelope for your convenience in replying.

Yours truly,

Enclosure

Mr. Ichimasa NAKATSU,
Reg. No. 11869,
GREENWOOD, D. C.

Dear Sir:

Attached hereto is Custodian cheque for the sum of $2.63, representing all the funds standing to your credit with this office.

As reported to you on January 8th and confirmed in your letter of January 31st, all the property left by you in the protected area has been accounted for.

Yours truly,

Dear Sir:

This is to confirm your letter of January 8th in which you state that the two beds left in your care were sold and that I left no other property.

I wish to state that the above is true.

Yours truly,
