Dear Sirs:

re: Claims $49.90 & $224.05 - Sakari MURAMATSU

We have submitted claims lodged by you against the above Japanese to him for payment. In making out your account for $49.90 you use merely the initial S. to represent the given name, and we have assumed that you refer to Sakari, as both accounts have the same address. He has replied to our various letters by a lengthy letter recently, which means when analyzed, that he is unable to make any payment at the present time. He states that he is under the doctor's care at Kaslo, B.C., where he is now located.

Under the circumstances, there does not seem much more that we can do than place your claims on file and accord them our attention should his financial position improve in the future.

Yours truly,

A. McAllister,
Claims Department.

re: Claim $183.00 - S. MURAMATSU

We have submitted the claim lodged by you against the above Japanese to him for payment; in doing so we have assumed that the initial S. of your account stands for Sakari.
