Dear Sir:

When in reference to your kind letter received several days ago. The following is all the information required with which you can identify the money belongs to me.

In 1930 a fire broke out in our home in [Address], Ont. and every thing we possessed was burned, including the Bank Book. You should have a record of the amount I informed you about is when it was [Amount].

The name [Name] in possessed by my family [Address] in Canada, [Address].

I hope that the above is enough evidence. If you ~~have~~ ^{need} any further information, please write me at the above address.

I don't know how much I deposited because it was many years ago, but I know that it was a very small sum.

Thanking you for your most immediate attention.

Sincerely,

Sincerely,
Mrs. Ernest J. Anderson
