Dear Sir:

Re: Prudential Policies

We have received a letter from the Prudential Life Insurance Company of America dated July 14th, and also copy of their letter to you of the same date, with reference to the premium payments on the above numbered two policies.

Apparently you sent the Prudential Life a remittance of $52.44 and this amount in error was credited to the premiums on policies belonging to your brother Shigeru HARAURA.

On May 18th we wrote to them and instructed them to correct their mistake by deducting the above amount from your brother's account and placing it to the credit of your account for the two policies numbered above.

This now has been attended to according to the letters I mentioned above and apparently there is an amount of $36.80 required by the Insurance Company from you in order to pay up your premiums to and including November 1944.

As we have no account for you in this office, it will be necessary that you attend to this matter yourself as you see fit; and when dealing with the Prudential Life make sure that you always quote your policy numbers so that there will be no confusion again in the future with your brother's policies.

Yours truly,

S. E. Gibson,
Insurance Department

Dear Sir:

We have removed the remittance in the amount of $52.44 which was incorrectly applied to the family of Shigeru Hamaura to that of Takasha Hamaura. However, this amount represents an annual remittance.

Under our Yearly Payment Plan for Intermediate policies, credit for a full year is allowed if a payment equal to 95 per cent of the sum of 12 monthly premiums is made within thirty-one days of the due date of the monthly premium.

As this remittance was originally received in November 1943, which was beyond the grace period, we could not credit the remittance on the annual basis.

If the premium payer will forward the arrears from March 1943 to and including November 1943, which amounts to $36.80 this amount together with the remittance in the amount of $52.44 would pay the premiums to and including November 1944. This additional remittance should be forwarded as promptly as possible, if credit on the annual basis is desired.

The $52.44 which has been applied to these two policies only pays the premiums to and including February 1944 with a balance of $1.84. Therefore, we believe it is to the insured's advantage to forward the additional remittance as promptly as possible.

We are under even date forwarding a copy of this letter to Takasha Hamaura.

As soon as the entries in the premium receipt books of Shigeru Hamaura have been adjusted they will be returned to you.

Yours truly,

H. A. Wittak

Assistant Manager.

Takashi Hamaura,

Dear Sir:

We are attaching a copy of our letter to Mr. S. M. Gibson of the Insurance Department. Since your remittance in the amount of $58.44 was forwarded to us after the expiration of the grace period, we could not credit the remittance on the annual basis. Therefore, if you will forward the remittance to pay the arrears from March 1943 to and including November 1943, an amount of $36.80, this together with the remittance of $58.44 which we have already received will pay the premiums on your insurance to and including November 1944.

We regret the delay that has resulted in the reinstatement of your insurance and trust that the additional remittance will be forwarded as promptly as possible.

Yours truly,

H. A. Wittke
Assistant Manager.
